No. 4,063

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE
Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1868.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 337, 1868.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
30th October, 1868.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the publication, for general information, of the following communication from Dr. EXTON, relating to the recent explorations for Gold in Maçen's Country.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

Enquameni, Head-quarters of Chief Moselikatze, north of Kumalo River, June 22, 1868.

To the Honourable the Colonial Secretary.

SIR,—I have the honour to report the result of my personal observation upon the site of the recent discovery of gold in the country lying between Gamangwato and the territory of the Chief Moselikatze.

The position is the one pointed out by Mr. Hartley, and from which the specimens of auriferous ore sent to the Colony by Herr Mauch were taken. The latter is understood to have obtained other specimens far in Mashona country, to the north-east of Moselikatze's chief town; but the part to which the attention of Cape colonists has been more immediately directed lies on the northern bank of the River Thati, a tributary of the Shashi, itself running into the Limpopo; and one hundred and sixty-four miles from Shoshong, on the main road to the interior.

I found two parties at work,—one consisting of nine individuals from Potchefstroom, under the leadership of Mr. Black, who had mainly been fitted out and provisioned by the merchants and inhabitants of that town for a six months' sojourn at "the diggings." Another party of four from the Waterberg, in the Transvaal, were on their own private enterprise.

The accompanying rough ground plan (No. 1)* will illustrate the position of the present workings in reference to the main road and river Thati, in the north-east angle formed by the crossing of which the search for the metal is now being conducted The arrows indicate the dip, and the lines the strike of the strata. The diagrams are approximately true to horizontal distances, the vertical being intentionally exaggerated for purpose of illustration

There appear to have been attempts in former times to excavate at this spot,—the main shaft of the Potchefstroom party being a continuation of an old working which had been carried to a depth of 35 feet, but which had become nearly filled up in the lapse of time, and through the loose detritus of which the present miners dug, till they found the natural, undisturbed rock.

The work is at the summit of an eminence consisting of a green talcose slate, through the strata of which three principal veins of quartz run in a south-east direction, that being the strike of the strata. These veins are from 18 inches to two feet wide, and in two only have gold been found. The above-mentioned shaft commences at one of these quartz veins, and as the dip of the strata is an angle of 75 deg., the shaft in the perpendicular section exposes successively the quartz and slate, the veins of the formation appearing to approach nearer each other as we descend.

The most encouraging specimens of auriferous quartz have been taken about 13 inches from the ground surface, and there would appear to be a larger proportion of metal in the quartz immediately in contact with the slate.

Where the rocks are in contact, there is a fine friable detritus, yielding some gold on washing, the rest being distributed in extremely fine particles through the quartz; but according to the experience of the miners (who afforded me every opportunity to verify their observations) the proportion becomes less in quantity as they descend.

Greatly to the welfare of this country and to the interests of the Colony as it undoubtedly would be, were remunerative gold-fields opened out here, after a careful examination of the geological features of the surrounding country I am compelled to take a less sanguine view of the value and prospect of a profitable working of these fields than, in the excitement attendant upon their first being made known, was anticipated.

Amongst the whole party of thirteen, after seven weeks' regular and steady work, the entire quantity of gold obtained by "washing" does not amount to more than half an ounce; though it is right to add that of what may be extracted by the more complicated process of crushing the quartz, there is no experience to determine,—the specks of gold visible on breaking the rock being very inconsiderable, and afford so little encouragement that the Waterberg party have become disheartened, and already speak of disbanding themselves.

That the extent of the present known auriferous quartz-veins is very limited, and that the geology of the district does not lead us to expect other and richer fields in close proximity, I have derived from the following data, and will be more fully explained in the annexed diagrams (Nos. 2 and 3)* which I have the honour to enclose. (Ideal section, to show the site of "diggings," passing from N.E. to S.W. Entire distance 800 yards.)

From Shoshong or Gamangwato to the river Shashi the surface rock is granite, here and there capped with trachyte or basalt; and along the bed of the Shashi, which I explored for some eight miles, granite is exposed the whole distance.

To the river Thati, six and a half miles northward, granite is the prevailing formation, passing as we neared the Thati into a schistose sandstone.

As we cross the Thati we meet first some low hills of magnetic ironstone lying upon the talcose slate, the latter extending six miles northward, when we find a narrow bed of quartz grit, and schist, with granite beyond, which extends through the next fifty miles of country, and prevails right away into Moselikatze's country.

The auriferous quartz veins are limited to the narrow reefs in the slate north of the Thati. We have no alluvium, beneath which nuggets may be found, as in the Ural, California, and Australia,—the only resemblance to the latter continent being the vein-stones through the slate already described.

The dip of the strata being 75 deg., the search for gold necessarily follows the line of contact between the quartz and slate, which is so little removed from the perpendicular as to entail all the labour of shaft-sinking; and the amount of gold as yet procured is so small as to lead the energies of those at present engaged rather to further "prospecting" than to continuing their laborious work.

I have pleasure in speaking of the general friendliness of the natives with whom I came in contact, though in this immediate neighbourhood an angry state of feeling seems to have ensued upon the recent visit of Commandant Viljoen to Moselikatze, who is in more fear of an irruption of the Transvaal Boers along the Shashi and Thati rather than the arrival of "diggers" from the Colony.

I am, &c.,

H. EXTON, M.D.

I have secured specimens of the auriferous quartz of the slate, which becomes partially crystalline where in contact with it, and also of the gold obtained by washing, which I await opportunity to transmit to the S. A. Museum.

H. E.

The articles to be supplied are to be of the best description, and are in all cases to be subject to the approval of the Chief Inspector of Public Works, or his representatives on Works in the Country Divisions.

Parties tendering are requested to make themselves acquainted with the conditions of the Contracts, forms of which lie open for inspection at this Office and at the Offices of the Civil Commissioners at Port Elizabeth, Graham's Town, King William's Town, and Queen's Town.

NOTICE.

General Post Office, Cape Town,
2nd November, 1868.

THE Regulations for the Inland Sample and Pattern Post are published for general information.

1. Regulations and Conditions for the Transmission by Post of Samples and Patterns of Merchandize.

1st. The Patterns or Samples must not be of intrinsic value. This rule excludes all articles of a saleable nature, and, indeed, whatever may have a value of its own, apart from its mere use as a Pattern or Sample; and the quantity of any material sent ostensibly as a Pattern or Sample must not be so great that it can fairly be considered as having, on that ground, an intrinsic value.

2nd. There must be no writing or printing in addition to the address of the person for whom the packet is intended, and the address of the sender, other than a trade mark and numbers, and the prices of the articles; and these particulars must in all cases be given, not on loose pieces of paper, but on small labels attached to the Samples or the bags or boxes containing them.

3rd. The Patterns or Samples must be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination. Samples, however, of seeds, drugs, and so forth, which cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen, paper, or other material, tied at the neck; or the bags may be entirely closed, provided they be transparent, so that the Officers of the Post Office may be able to satisfy themselves as to the nature of the contents. The rule which forbids the transmission through the Post of any article which might injure the contents of the Mail Bags or the Officers of the Post Office is so far relaxed in this case as to permit patterns of scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, and such like articles, to be forwarded, provided that they be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the Mail Bags and the persons of the Officers of the Post Office, whilst at the same time the Samples may be easily examined.

4th. No Packet of Patterns or Samples must exceed two feet in length, one foot in breadth or depth, or five pounds in weight.

5th. In order to prevent any interruption to the regular transmission of letters, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster of any Post Office to delay the transmission of Packets of Patterns or Samples from such Office until in his judgment the size, weight, and other circumstances of the Mails by which such Packets are to go shall admit of such Packets being forwarded: Provided, always, that as often as any number of Packets more than one shall be delayed at any Post Office in consequence of the state of the Mails, such Packets shall be forwarded in the order of priority in which they were posted.

2. Rates of Postage fixed by Section 5 of Act No. 6 of 1868 on the Inland Transmission of Trade Samples and Patterns.

On all such Patterns and Samples not exceeding in weight one ounce, one penny.

On all such Patterns and Samples above one ounce and not exceeding two ounces, two pence.

On all such Patterns and Samples above two ounces and not exceeding four ounces, three pence.

And for every additional four ounces or fraction of four ounces, an additional rate of three pence.

G. W. AITCHISON, Officer in Charge.

DE Regulatien op de Binnenlandschen Post voor Stalen en Monsters worden tot algemeen berigt hierbij bekend gemaakt.

1. Regulatien en Voorwaarden op het per Post verzenden van Stalen en Monsters Handelswaren.

1ste. De Stalen en Monsters mogen geene inwendige waarde hebben. Deze bepaling sluit alle artikelen van verkoopbaren aard uit zoowel als alles wat in zich zelf eenige waarde heeft buiten deszelfs gebruik als Staal of Monster; en de hoeveelheid van een als Staal of Monster verzonden zelfstandigheid mag niet zoo groot zijn, dat zij billijk kan geacht worden om die reden, intrinsieke waarde te hebben.

2de. Er mag niets in schrift of druk gevoegd worden bij het adres van dengene voor wien het paket bestemd is, en het adres van den afzender, buiten een handelsmerk en de nommers en prijzen der artikelen; en deze bijzonderheden moeten in elk geval worden opgegeven niet op losse stukken papier, maar op kleine etiketten, gehecht aan de Monsters of aan de zakken of kisten, waarin die zich bevinden.

3de. De Stalen of Monsters moeten verzonden worden in omslagen, die aan beide einden open zijn, zoodat zij gemakkelijk kunnen nagezien worden. Monsters zaden, droogerijen, enz., die niet in open omslagen kunnen verzonden worden, mogen geborgen worden in zakken van linnen, papier, of andere stof, aan den krop digtgebonden, of de zakken mogen gesloten worden, mits dat zij zoo doorschijnend zijn, dat de Postbeambten zich gemakkelijk van den inhoud kunnen overtuigen. De bepaling, waarbij verboden wordt Artikelen per Post te verzenden, die den inhoud der Maalzakken of den Postbeambten schade kan toebrengen wordt in dit geval in zooverre opgeheven, dat het geoorloofd is monsters van scharen, messen, scheermessen, vorken, stalen pennen, spijkers, sleutels, machinerie voor horologes, metalen buizen, stukken metaal of erts en dergelijke artikelen, te verzenden, mits deze zoo sekuur zijn ingepakt en verzorgd, dat de inhoud der Maalzakken en de personen der Postbeambten volkomen beschermd zijn, terwijl tevens de Monsters gemakkelijk kunnen worden nagezien.

4de. Geen paket Stalen of Monsters mag twee voet in lengte, een voet in breedte of hoogte en vijf pond in gewigt te boven gaan.

5de. Ter voorkoming van eenigerlei oponthoud in de verzending van Brieven zal iedere Postmeester het regt hebben, de verzending van Paketten Stalen of Monsters van zijn kantoor uit te stellen, tot dat naar zijn oordeel de grootte, het gewigt en andere omstandigheden der malen waarmede zij gaan moeten, die verzending veroorloven: Met dien verstande altijd, dat telkens als meer dan een paket aan een postkantoor zal zijn opgehouden tengevolge van den staat der Malen, die paketten zullen verzonden worden in de volgende, waarin zij op het Postkantoor bezorgd waren.

2. Tarief van Postgeld, vastgesteld bij Artikel 5 Wet No. 6 van 1868, op de Binnenlandsche Verzending van Monsters en Stalen van den Handel.

No Tender will be attended to unless prepared in proper form, in conformity with this Notice, and of which copies may be obtained either at this Office, or that of the respective Civil Commissioners and Postmasters.

The Tenders must include all intermediate Post Offices between Stations.

It is desired that the Tenderers should state the number of relays of Horses to be used, and the Stations at which they will be kept; as, also, at what price they will engage to convey extra Posts or Expresses on Horseback on the Post Line for which they tender.

Payment will be made to the Contractor monthly, either at the Colonial Treasury in Cape Town, or by the Civil Commissioner of any Division he may select; provided the Contract Bond shall previously have been transmitted to this Office, duly completed, which Bond the Contractor will be required to execute in the presence of two competent Witnesses, together with two good and approved Sureties, to be provided by him, for the due fulfilment of the Contract; and he must accompany his Tender with a written engagement from his Sureties to bind themselves as such; as, also, with a Certificate from the Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate of the District in which he resides, as to the sufficiency of such Sureties. In the Tender, the names of the Contractor and his Sureties should be stated at full length, and their respective occupations should also be mentioned therein. The Security required will, in each case, be equal to the payment to be made by Government to the Contractor for one year of the Contract.

The Contractor will be required to provide his own means of conveyance for crossing rivers, without detention; and all penalties for delay, from whatever cause arising, will be rigidly exacted. Any party tendering is required to specify in his Tender the means to be adopted by him for crossing or avoiding swollen rivers, either by applying some contrivance, or leaving the usual line, and also the delay, if any, to be allowed on such occasions.

The Tenderers are required to convey the Mails in covered Carts on springs, conveyed by not fewer than two horses each.

The Contractor's Carts are to be light, but strong, sufficiently large to contain the Mail Bags, and to be furnished with Waterproof Wells, or Boxes, with strong Locks and Keys, to hold the Mail Packets, for enclosing and securing which it will be necessary for the Contractor to supply Waterproof Bags; or, failing these, the Cart is to be supplied with Tarpaulins, to be strapped over it and over any Mail Packets that may have to be secured to it, and which are to be lashed on with good stout riems. The Carts to be provided with two good Lamps, with strong Reflectors, which are to be kept lighted at night when travelling.

The Contractor is bound, at his own expense, to provide the means of protecting the Mail Packets from the weather, or injury in transferring them from one Post Cart to another, on the line of road herein referred to, and will be held responsible for any damage which may occur to them whilst being transferred from his charge.

The Contractor will be at liberty to carry such number of Passengers or Parcels in the Mail Vehicle as he may think fit, and to make his own charge for the accommodation thus afforded; provided that part of the Box or Well of the Cart specially to be appropriated for the Mail shall not be mixed up with any other Packets, &c., not appertaining to such Mail.

But the Contractor will not be allowed to carry in his Vehicles, by himself or any of his Servants, any Letters or Newspapers, excepting those delivered to him by the respective Postmasters, or for delivery at any Post Office, nor are they knowingly to permit any Passenger to carry any Letter or Newspaper.

The Post Rider shall be provided by the Contractor with a Bugle or Horn, to be sounded when approaching any Post Office or Post Station.

For any detention of the Mail, or any part thereof, beyond the time specified for the distance allowed, the Contractor shall forfeit according to the following scale:—

For every period not exceeding half an hour	0	2	6
„ half an hour, and not exceeding one hour	0	7	6
„ one hour, and not exceeding an hour and a half	0	15	0
„ one hour and a half, and not exceeding two hours	1	5	0
„ two hours, and not exceeding two hours and a half	2	0	0

and for every additional half-hour beyond two hours and a half, the additional sum of Ten Shillings.

In the event of the Contractor failing or neglecting for three Posts in succession to convey the Mails within the time herein stipulated, the Postmaster-General for the time being, in that case to have it in his power, should he so think fit, to advertise for Tenders for a new Contract without any reference to the clause for giving four months' notice for an earlier termination thereof (which clause is to be null and void); and any loss that may accrue by reason that the terms of the new Contract are higher than the terms of the old is to be borne by the Contractor.

And inasmuch as serious irregularities have arisen from changing Vehicles and shifting the Mails, the Contractor will have to bind himself that as often as any Post Boy of his shall receive any Mail Bags or Post Office Packets into any Vehicle at any Post Office, such Bags and Packets shall be carried to their destination in that same Vehicle, and that none of the said Bags or Parcels shall, between the Post Office where the same were received and the Post Office where the same should be delivered, be shifted or removed from that Vehicle to any other Vehicle or mode of conveyance, unless with the permission and in the presence of some Postmaster, or unless the Vehicle carrying the same shall, by accident or other cause arising after the same shall have been received, be rendered incapable of carrying on the Mail to its destination. And for any and every breach of this stipulation the Contractor will have to pay to the Postmaster-General for the time being whatever penalty he shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds sterling.

In case any Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail shall not be regularly delivered at the same time as the rest thereof, the Contractor shall be bound to pay to the Postmaster-General, for or in respect of every such lost or missing Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail, such sum as the said Postmaster shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds Sterling, unless the Contractor shall prove that such Bag, Packet, or other part of any such Mail was lost or delayed by inevitable accident against which it was impossible to guard. And the Contractor shall likewise be liable to the Postmaster-General, claiming on behalf of whom it may concern, to make good all loss or damage sustained by any Person whomsoever, by reason that any Mail or Bag, Parcel, or other par of any Mail, shall have been lost or delayed for want of due and proper care and diligence of the Contractor, or any person in his service.

Should the said Contractor fail in the performance of his agreement at any period during the existence of the same, then, and in that case, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General for the time being, and for all Persons thereto authorized by him, to hire, or cause to be hired such Person or Persons, Horse or Horses, as shall be required for the due performance thereof; and all and every expense attendant upon the same shall be borne and sustained by the said Contractor.

And it is lastly agreed that in case of any act of omission, constituting a breach by the Contractor of any of the provisions or stipulations of this Contract, not being an act or omission for which any other particular penalty is hereinbefore provided, the Postmaster-General shall have the option of claiming from the Contractor, for and on account of every such act or omission, respectively, the payment of Ten Pounds Sterling, by way of assessed and liquidated damages, and not as a penalty; or otherwise, of claiming and recovering such further or other sum as the said Postmaster shall prove to be the amount of loss or damages actually sustained from or by reason of such act or omission.

The Contractor will be bound to provide a passage in his Mail Conveyance for an Officer of this Department, when travelling on public business, without charge, when required so to do.

Further information may be obtained on application at the Office of the Postmaster-General.

The Contract is to commence from the 18th March, 1869, and to end on the 31st December, 1872; but either of the contracting parties will be at liberty to terminate the same, upon giving four months' notice, in writing to that effect.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

No Tender will be attended to unless prepared in proper form, in conformity with this Notice, and of which copies may be obtained either at this Office, or that of the respective Civil Commissioners and Postmasters.

The Tenders must include all intermediate Post Offices between Stations.

It is desired that the Tenderers should state the number of relays of Horses to be used, and the Stations at which they will be kept; as, also, at what price they will engage to convey extra Posts or Expresses on Horseback on the Post Line for which they tender.

Payment will be made to the Contractor monthly, either at the Colonial Treasury in Cape Town, or by the Civil Commissioner of any Division he may select; provided the Contract Bond shall previously have been transmitted to this Office, duly completed, which Bond the Contractor will be required to execute in the presence of two competent Witnesses, together with two good and approved Sureties, to be provided by him, for the due fulfilment of the Contract; and he must accompany his Tender with a written engagement from his Sureties to bind themselves as such; as, also, with a Certificate from the Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate of the District in which he resides, as to the sufficiency of such Sureties. In the Tender, the names of the Contractor and his Sureties should be stated at full length, and their respective occupations should also be mentioned therein. The Security required will, in each case, be equal to the payment to be made by Government to the Contractor for one year of the Contract.

The Contractor will be required to provide his own means of conveyance for crossing rivers, without detention; and all penalties for delay, from whatever cause arising, will be rigidly exacted. Any party tendering is required to specify in his Tender the means to be adopted by him for crossing or avoiding swollen rivers, either by applying some contrivance, or leaving the usual line, and also the delay, if any, to be allowed on such occasions.

The Tenderers are required to convey the Mails in covered Carts on springs, conveyed by not fewer than two horses each.

The Contractor's Carts are to be light, but strong, sufficiently large to contain the Mail Bags, and to be furnished with Waterproof Wells, or Boxes, with strong Locks and Keys, to hold the Mail Packets, for enclosing and securing which it will be necessary for the Contractor to supply Waterproof Bags; or, failing these, the Cart is to be supplied with Tarpaulins, to be strapped over it and over any Mail Packets that may have to be secured to it, and which are to be lashed on with good stout riems. The Carts to be provided with two good Lamps, with strong Reflectors, which are to be kept lighted at night when travelling.

The Contractor is bound, at his own expense, to provide the means of protecting the Mail Packets from the weather, or injury in transferring them from one Post Cart to another, on the line of road herein referred to, and will be held responsible for any damage which may occur to them whilst being transferred from his charge.

The Contractor will be at liberty to carry such number of Passengers or Parcels in the Mail Vehicle as he may think fit, and to make his own charge for the accommodation thus afforded; provided that part of the Box or Well of the Cart specially to be appropriated for the Mail shall not be mixed up with any other Packets, &c., not appertaining to such Mail.

But the Contractor will not be allowed to carry in his Vehicles, by himself or any of his Servants, any Letters or Newspapers, excepting those delivered to him by the respective Postmasters, or for delivery at any Post Office, nor are they knowingly to permit any Passenger to carry any Letter or Newspaper.

The Post Rider shall be provided by the Contractor with a Bugle or Horn, to be sounded when approaching any Post Office or Post Station.

For any detention of the Mail, or any part thereof, beyond the time specified for the distance allowed, the Contractor shall forfeit according to the following scale:—

" half an hour, and not exceeding one hour –	0	7	6

" every additional half-hour beyond two hours and a fractional sum of Ten Shillings.

And in case of the Contractor failing or neglecting for [illegible] in succession to convey the Mails within the [illegible] aforesaid, the Postmaster-General for the time being shall have it in his power, should he [illegible] for Tenders for a new Contract [illegible] expiring four months [illegible] Contract.

And inasmuch as serious irregularities have arisen from changing Vehicles and shifting the Mails, the Contractor will have to bind himself that as often as any Post Boy of his shall receive any Mail Bags or Post Office Packets into any Vehicle at any Post Office, such Bags and Packets shall be carried to their destination in that same Vehicle, and that none of the said Bags or Parcels shall, between the Post Office where the same were received and the Post Office where the same should be delivered, be shifted or removed from that Vehicle to any other Vehicle or mode of conveyance, unless with the permission and in the presence of some Postmaster, or unless the Vehicle carrying the same shall, by accident or other cause arising after the same shall have been received, be rendered incapable of carrying on the Mail to its destination. And for any and every breach of this stipulation the Contractor will have to pay to the Postmaster-General for the time being whatever penalty he shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds sterling.

In case any Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail shall not be regularly delivered at the same time as the rest thereof, the Contractor shall be bound to pay to the Postmaster-General, for or in respect of every such lost or missing Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail, such sum as the said Postmaster shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds Sterling, unless the Contractor shall prove that such Bag, Packet, or other part of any such Mail was lost or delayed by inevitable accident against which it was impossible to guard. And the Contractor shall likewise be liable to the Postmaster-General, claiming on behalf of whom it may concern, to make good all loss or damage sustained by any Person whomsoever, by reason that any Mail or Bag, Parcel, or other par of any Mail, shall have been lost or delayed for want of due and proper care and diligence of the Contractor, or any person in his service.

Should the said Contractor fail in the performance of his agreement at any period during the existence of the same, then, and in that case, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General for the time being, and for all Persons thereto authorized by him, to hire, or cause to be hired such Person or Persons, Horse or Horses, as shall be required for the due performance thereof; and all and every expense attendant upon the same shall be borne and sustained by the said Contractor.

And it is lastly agreed that in case of any act of omission, constituting a breach by the Contractor of any of the provisions or stipulations of this Contract, not being an act or omission for which any other particular penalty is hereinbefore provided, the Postmaster-General shall have the option of claiming from the Contractor, for and on account of every such act or omission, respectively, the payment of Ten Pounds Sterling, by way of assessed and liquidated damages, and not as a penalty; or otherwise, of claiming and recovering such further or other sum as the said Postmaster shall prove to be the amount of loss or damages actually sustained from or by reason of such act or omission.

The Contractor will be bound to provide a passage in his Mail Conveyance for an Officer of this Department, when travelling on public business, without charge, when required so to do.

Further information may be obtained on application at the Office of the Postmaster-General.

fit, and to make his own charge for the accommodation thus afforded: provided that part of the Box or Well of the Cart speciality to be appropriated for the Mail shall not be mixed up with any other Packets, &c., not appertaining to such Mail.

But the Contractor will not be allowed to carry in his Vehicles, by himself or any of his Servants, any Letters or Newspapers, excepting those delivered to him by the respective Postmasters, or for delivery at any Post Office, nor are they knowingly to permit any Passenger to carry any Letter or Newspaper.

The Post Rider shall be provided by the Contractor with a Bugle or Horn, to be sounded when approaching any Post Office or Post Station.

For any detention of the Mail, or any part thereof, beyond the time specified for the distance allowed, the Contractor shall forfeit according to the following scale:—

	£	s.	d
For every period not exceeding half an hour –	0	2	6
„ half an hour, and not exceeding one hour –	0	7	6
„ one hour, and not exceeding an hour and a half – – – – – – – – –	0	15	0
„ one hour and a half, and not exceeding two hours – – – – – – – –	1	5	0

and for every additional half-hour beyond two hours and a half, the additional sum of Ten Shillings.

In the event of the Contractor failing or neglecting for three Posts in succession to convey the Mails within the time herein stipulated, the Postmaster-General for the time being, in that case to have it in his power, should he so think fit, to advertise for Tenders for a new Contract without any reference to the clause for giving four months' notice for an earlier termination thereof (which clause is to be null and void); and any loss that may accrue by reason that the terms of the new Contract are higher than the terms of the old is to be borne by the Contractor.

And inasmuch as serious irregularities have arisen from changing Vehicles and shifting the Mails, the Contractor will have to bind himself that as often as any Post Boy of his shall receive any Mail Bags or Post Office Packets into any Vehicle at any Post Office, such Bags and Packets shall be carried to their destination in that same Vehicle, and that none of the said Bags or Parcels shall, between the Post Office where the same were received and the Post Office where the same should be delivered, be shifted or removed from that Vehicle to any other Vehicle or mode of conveyance, unless with the permission and in the presence of some Postmaster, or unless the Vehicle carrying the same shall, by accident or other cause arising after the same shall have been received, be rendered incapable of carrying on the Mail to its destination. And for any and every breach of this stipulation the Contractor will have to pay to the Postmaster-General for the time being whatever penalty he shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds sterling.

In case any Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail shall not be regularly delivered at the same time as the rest thereof, the Contractor shall be bound to pay to the Postmaster-General, for or in respect of every such lost or missing Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail, such sum as the said Postmaster shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds Sterling, unless the Contractor shall prove that such Bag, Packet, or other part of any such Mail was lost or delayed by inevitable accident against which it was impossible to guard. And the Contractor shall likewise be liable to the Postmaster-General, claiming on behalf of whom it may concern, to make good all loss or damage sustained by any Person whomsoever, by reason that any Mail or Bag, Parcel, or other par of any Mail, shall have been lost or delayed for want of due and proper care and diligence of the Contractor, or any person in his service.

Should the said Contractor fail in the performance of his agreement at any period during the existence of the same, then, and in that case, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General for the time being, and for all Persons thereto authorized by him, to hire, or cause to be hired such Person or Persons, Horse or Horses, as shall be required for the due performance thereof; and all and every expense attendant upon the same shall be borne and sustained by the said Contractor.

And it is lastly agreed that in case of any act of omission, constituting a breach by the Contractor of any of the provisions or stipulations of this Contract, not being an act or omission for which any other particular penalty is hereinbefore provided, the Postmaster-General shall have the option of claiming from the Contractor, for and on account of every such act or omission, respectively, the payment of Ten Pounds Sterling, by way of assessed and liquidated damages, and not as a penalty; or otherwise, of claiming and recovering such further or other sum as the said Postmaster shall prove to be the amount of loss or damages actually sustained from or by reason of such act or omission.

The Contractor will be bound to provide a passage in his Mail Conveyance for an Officer of this Department, when travelling on public business, without charge, when required so to do.

Further information may be obtained on application at the Office of the Postmaster-General.

In the Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope.

The Honourable JAMES COLEMAN FITZPATRICK, Esq., Senior Judge, and the Honourable ALFRED WEALEY CORE, Esq., the Judges of the Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope, do hereby make known,—

THAT whereas HONORIE LEAR, of Alice, in the Division of Victoria East, made an application to the Honourable the Court of the Eastern Districts on the 29th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, for leave to summon CHARLES LEAR, her husband, now or lately a private soldier in Her Majesty's Regiment called the "2nd Queen's," but now supposed to be in the territory of the Orange Free State, or elsewhere beyond the jurisdiction of this Court and of the Courts of the said Colony, by process of Edictal Citation, to appear, either in person or by proxy, to show cause why an order or decree of this Honourable Court shall not be granted for the restitution of the conjugal rights of the said HONORIE LEAR, by reason of the said CHARLES LEAR having, in or about the month of March, 1860, maliciously deserted her, the said HONORIE LEAR; all which the said Court having taken into consideration granted accordingly:

And whereas, on the 6th day of October last past the said Court did by Edictal Citation, duly published, summon the said CHARLES LEAR to appear, either in person or by proxy, before this Honourable Court on the 16th day of November, 1868, to show wherefore he should not be ordered and decreed to return to the said HONORIE LEAR, with her to live and cohabit as man and wife; or otherwise wherefore the said Court should not grant such further or other relief in the premises as might seem expedient, with costs:

And now on this day comes the said HONORIE LEAR by her Counsel and Attorney, and the said CHARLES LEAR does not appear, but makes default; and thereupon, upon hearing Mr. Solicitor-General of Counsel for the said HONORIE LEAR, the said Court grants to the said HONORIE LEAR the benefit of the first default of the said CHARLES LEAR, and gives leave to issue a second Edictal Citation in the premises:

Now, therefore, the said Court do by these presents again summon the said CHARLES LEAR to appear, either in person or by proxy, before this Honourable Court on the 14th day of December now next ensuing, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to show wherefore he should not be ordered and decreed to return to the said HONORIE LEAR, with her to live and cohabit as man and wife; or otherwise wherefore the said Court shall not grant such further or other relief in the premises as may seem expedient, with costs; and further to proceed according to law.

Thus done and granted in the Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope, at Graham's Town, this 16th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

JOHN J. GRAHAM, Act. Registrar of the Court of the Eastern Districts.

The Premiums are payable yearly in advance; or at the option of the Assured, half-yearly, with a slight increase of the Rate.

This being a MUTUAL ASSURANCE SOCIETY, the profits are not, as in Proprietary Companies, divided between the Partners and the Assured,—the whole belong to the Policy-holders.

The Profits are divided amongst the holders of Policies at the termination of every period of THREE YEARS, and each holder may determine that his share shall be added to the sum assured by him,—or converted into Present Payment—or applied in Reduction of the future Annual Premiums payable by him.

The last Division was declared at the Annual Meeting held on the 6th July, 1868. The Profits then divided were at the rate of 2½ per cent. per annum, or 7½ per cent. for the three years. Thus a Policy of £500, taken out before 1st November, 1865, has £37 10s., three years' Profits added to it; a Policy of the same amount, taken out before 1st November, 1867, has £12 10s., one year's Profits added; while the total accumulated Profits on a Policy of £500, taken out in 1845, the first year of the Society's existence, now amount to the large sum of £401 0s. 4d.

The next Division of Profits will take place in July, 1871.

Persons proposing for assurance will be required to produce Certificates of Baptism, or such other proofs of age as the Directors may deem to be satisfactory.

Candidates for assurance are not charged with fees payable to the Medical Officers of the Society.

Prospectuses, Forms of Proposal, and all information respecting the Society may be obtained at the Office in Cape Town, or at any of the Agencies throughout the Colony

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 368, 1868.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
30th November, 1868.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the publication of the following Papers for general information.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Office, 30th November, 1868.

The Resident Magistrate, Calvinia.

SIR,—I have laid before the Governor your letter of the 24th instant, forwarding detailed statements made by certain farmers who have sustained heavy losses at the hands of the Koranuas, reporting the steps you had taken for their temporary relief, and representing the urgent need of effective military assistance.

His Excellency exceedingly regrets the hardships and losses to which these people have been exposed, and is most anxious that the measures now in progress should result in the speedy suppression of the disorders from which Calvinia and some of the adjacent divisions have for some time been suffering. But as he holds it to be of much importance that neither the people of the divisions in question nor the community in general should form exaggerated notions of the actual danger to be encountered, or should be led to regard the arrangements the Government is pressing forward as wholly inadequate to meet what is required of it, His Excellency has been at some pains to examine carefully the facts actually established by the statements you seem to have taken on oath from the sufferers, and to see how far they really warrant the conclusions you have drawn from them.

You infer that it was the intention of the Koranuas to massacre the whole party, and that the design was frustrated by the flight of the women and children and the spirited resistance of the ten brave men. The statement shows that the women and children, at the very commencement of the affair, fled from the only persons who could protect them, into the field in which the Koranuas are said to have been present in large numbers, at a distance of about twenty yards. There is not a particle of evidence to show that anyone of them, while in this defenceless condition, was even touched; and it is clear that a servant who was for a time in the hands of the robbers was immediately released unhurt.

You speak of Mr. Burger having arrived with his clothes in tatters, showing evident signs of the desperate nature of the affray. It does not appear how his clothes got into that state; but certainly he did not touch a Koranua, nor did a Koranua touch him. The first fight, on Saturday, took place at the wagons, when firing continued from some time after dark till about 9 o'clock. No casualty is mentioned as the result, except that of a chair, on which Mrs. Burger had been sitting before her flight, having been hit; but the servant taken prisoner heard the Koranuas tell their Captain they could not conquer, although they made another brief attack. On Sunday morning another fight took place at the house, at within two yards of which they commenced firing "volley after volley," "an almost perpetual rain of bullets for about two hours." Not an individual was hurt on either side; until at last one Koranua jumped on the window, and was shot through the head, and the affair was virtually over. It may have been wise and prudent on the part of the farmers to have kept themselves during all that time in a position of security, where they could not see foes described to have been two yards from the house; but it is not unreasonable to conjecture that tactics of a more enterprising character might have more speedily and effectually repulsed the Koranuas, and have been the means of saving a considerable portion of the property.

You speak, also, of your having resolved not to keep a body of thirty men in readiness, "on account of the danger of leaving so small a party to face the formidable force still suspected of being ensconced in the almost impregnable fastnesses in the Orange River Islands." The Government is not in possession of the facts that led you to this conclusion; but if the people supposed to be on the islands are of the same class as those with which Mr. Burger was engaged, they can hardly be termed "formidable," in the ordinary sense of the word, and might probably be held greatly in check by a body of thirty resolute men.

On consideration of these circumstances, you have yourself applied for the services of a company of the Cape Mounted Rifles; and some gentlemen from Calvinia personally requested the Governor last week to furnish them with two cannons. His Excellency has felt it his duty to decline in both cases, feeling sure that neither could be made really useful in such a locality and on such a service. He knows that before this time the Police Force has been formed, and supplied with arms and ammunition of the best description. He has confidence in those whose duty it will be to lead them; and he has seen nothing in the reports received up to this time to raise the slightest doubt in his mind as to their ability to cope efficiently with the disorderly bodies roaming about the country, wherever they may be able to fall in with them. With this conviction he recommended the gentlemen who applied for the guns to take the earliest opportunity of placing themselves in communication with Mr. Jackson and Mr. Wright, to be guided by their directions, and to render them all the assistance in their power. I am to request that you will act in the same spirit, and do all in your power to induce the farmers of your division to take a like course.

It will be the duty of the Government, when the disorders have been fairly arrested, to consider carefully the best means of preventing a recurrence of them.

I have, &c.,
R. SOUTHEY, Colonial Secretary.

Resident Magistrate's Office, Calvinia,
24th November, 1868.

SIR,—Adverting to my letter of the 18th instant, forwarded by express, detailing the extensive robberies by an armed body of Koranuas on the 14th instant, at Dikdoorns, in the limits of this district and Fraserburg, I have now the honour to transmit the report of the sufferers (with translation of the affair), and the depositions of W. Burger, M. Waldstein, and H. Craywagen, from which His Excellency will perceive that the matter presents an infinitely more serious aspect than it did when first reported to me, and that, therefore, the need of effective and immediate military assistance has become most urgent.

It appears now that the intention of the Koranuas was to massacre the whole of the party who had congregated at Dikdoorns, on the evening of the 14th instant; and had it not been for the panic and flight of the women and children at the beginning of the affray, and the subsequent spirited resistance of the ten brave men in the face of so numerous a band of robbers, no doubt very few, if any, of the sufferers would have escaped the murderous attack.

Mr. Burger arrived in the village the day after my express left, in Mr. Waldstein's wagon, with his clothes in tatters, showing evident signs of the desperate nature of the affray, and was obliged to avail himself of the charitable offer of a suit of clothes from the villagers. His Excellency will perceive from the heavy losses sustained by Mr. Burger and three of the other farmers that they were well-to-do men.

Mr. Burger informed me that his first intention was to proceed direct to Cape Town to represent the total ruination of himself and party, with a view to some compensation being granted him and the others for their losses; but he had changed his mind and came to the determination to make a desperate attempt to recapture some, if not all, of the property stolen. I thought it right to strengthen him in this last resolve, and told him that if he could not get volunteers I would authorize him to engage thirty men, to whom he could offer a ration allowance of two shillings and six pence per day, during such time as they may be on active duty; and this offer I made on the strength of your letter of the 26th September last, approving of my proposal to retain a party of thirty men on the border after the force I had dispatched shall have returned,—but which arrangement Mr. Louw found it impracticable to carry out, on account of the danger of leaving so small a party to face the formidable force still suspected of being ensconced in the almost impregnable fastnesses on the Orange River Islands.

I also appointed Mr. Burger, provisionally, to act as field-cornet on the limits of Calvinia and Fraserburg (Dikdoorns), with instructions that he should, with every available opportunity, inform me of his doings and whereabouts, so that, in case His Excellency may be pleased to dispatch assistance, I may know how to direct such force upon its arrival.

I further gave Mr. Burger a supply of thirty-five pounds of gunpowder and some lead, which formed a portion of the remnant of Government ammunition returned by Mr. Louw upon his return from the Borders.

I also deemed it right to supplement the very liberal donation of the villagers towards the relief of the destitute women and children with a supply, on account of the Government, of the following:—half a bag of flour, half a bag of rice, 20 lbs. coffee, 10 lbs. of sugar.

To all these arrangements and grants I have the honour to request His Excellency's authority.

It only now remains for me to urge upon His Excellency (if he has not yet decided to do so) to render this district, and if possible also Fraserburg, such military assistance as may be in his power. Although I did not think it necessary to insert it in his deposition, Mr. Burger informs me that the shepherds who were taken prisoners by the Koranuas declared to him that, from what they (the shepherds) could understand from the talk of the robbers, the party who attacked the Burgers was only one of three that had been told off to go to three different places where farmers were known to have congregated with their cattle. One party had gone on an extensive raid into Fraserburg (probably to Amandelboom Mission Station), and the other to attack my assistant field-cornet, Andries Kotze, at Kattrap, who they were determined to cut up inch by inch should he fall into their hands, on account of his active assistance in the border operations of the late Burgher force.

Finally, the Koranuas declare themselves strong enough easily to clear the Hantam of the cattle, and even to pay this village and Fraserburg a visit. This may, perhaps, be only boasting of what they would not dare to be bold enough to attempt. But if they find that the farmers are left to their own weak efforts to resist such a desperate and murderous attack as was made on the 14th and 15th instant, and the comparative ease with which so vast a number of sheep and cattle and other valuable property was swept away within a distance of a day and a half from the abovementioned villages, it is not impossible that the threats of these marauders may soon become fearful realities.

I have, &c.,
P. DE SMIDT, Res. Mag.

Report to P. DE SMIDT, Esq.,
Civil Commissioner, Calvinia.

WORSHIPFUL SIR,—We are obliged to take up the pen to inform you that on Saturday night we were attacked by about 150 Koranuas, who fell suddenly upon us and fired. With our weak force we defended ourselves, and, in defending ourselves, we were obliged to retire to within the walls of the nearest house, where we shielded ourselves from their bullets. The following day we were attacked again by them; they kept up a steady fire into the windows of the house, but as we stood in the most secure corner of the house, they were unable to injure us. About ten o'clock in the morning their murderous spirit became so raised that one stormed into the window with loaded gun, and was shot by one of us and killed. Our helpless wives and children, during the 14th and 15th instant, were wandering about in the fields. We are robbed of everything we possessed. Our loss is about five thousand pounds sterling.

A true Translation:

P. DE SMIDT, R.M.

Resident Magistrate's Office, Calvinia,
19th November, 1868.

Appeared before me, Petrus Johannes de Smidt, Resident Magistrate of Calvinia, Willem Petrus Burgers, who, being duly sworn, states:

I am lessee of the place Dikdoorns, on the limits of this district and Fraserburg. On Saturday, the 14th, I, and Alewyn Stephanus Burger, Jacobus Gideon, Nel, Hendrik Craywagen, and Stephanus C. Burger, were congregated together, with our wagons, wives, and children, and our entire stock of cattle and sheep. In the evening of that Saturday, about a quarter of an hour after sunset, my brother Alewyn came to my wagon and reported that the Koranuas were upon us, and had already turned off our flock of sheep. I immediately ordered every one to get their guns ready, and we all went to Alewyn's wagon, where we kept guard until darkness had set in, when we became aware that the Koranuas had approached us to within fifteen or twenty yards. My eldest son had crept up and discovered them. He said there must be plenty of them, as their voices made quite a rumbling sound. I had a little Hottentot with me who spoke the Koranua language, and I told him to call out to the Koranuas what their intentions were; and just as the Hottentot called out, the Koranuas opened a heavy fire upon us, and which we at once returned. [From the whistle of the bullets they must have been of iron.—P. DE S.] Our wives and children then took fright and fled into the field. I must here state that there were three tents on the spot, and the wagons were drawn up in a line close to them. There were eight wagons and two spring carts. My wife was sitting on a chair before one of the tents. At the first shot she had jumped up, and hardly had she done so, but a second shot hit and shattered the back of the chair she had just left. The firing lasted till about 9 o'clock, when our return fire evidently made the Koranuas retire. From the statement of one of my servants who was taken prisoner, but afterwards released, it appears that they retired to tell their Captain they saw no chance of conquering us. About an hour afterwards they came back and attacked us from another direction. We resisted them for about an hour, when they again retired. It appeared that whilst one party fired upon us, the other was busy driving off flock after flock of our sheep. Whilst the Koranuas were making this last retreat, we hastily collected about fifteen hundred sheep (then all that were left of the six thousand we possessed), and retreated into the house which stood about half an hour's distance from the wagons, prepared to defend ourselves to the uttermost. Our little party consisted of ten men, two blacks among them. About daybreak on Sunday morning we discovered the Koranuas busy ransacking our wagons and carts, and we sallied out to try and recapture the wagons. I estimate the number of Koranuas around the wagons at fully two hundred. They were partly mounted and partly on foot. In the face of this overwhelming force we had to return without success, and we then decided to go after the spoor of our wives and children. We found the spoors going in all directions; the fugitives had evidently groped and wandered in the darkness. It appeared from the spoors that the children had strayed from their mothers, and had been followed by the latter. In many places there were marks of tumbles. But we could not discover the fugitives. We then decided to return to the house and get back the fifteen hundred sheep, or die to a man in the attempt,—all but Jacobus Nel, who would not give up the search of his wife and children (and this appeared afterwards to have been a providential decision, as he discovered his wife, with three children, in the near vicinity of the Koranuas). Nine of us then turned back to the house, and seeing the Koranuas coming up to us, we waited for them on the stoep, until they came within bullet shot, when we went into the house, and opened the doors and windows, in order the better to see the enemy. They approached to within two yards of the house and commenced firing volley after volley at the house, into which there was an almost perpetual rain of bullets for about two hours. They were now leaden bullets [evidently our own property, as our wagons contained about 100 lbs. of bullets.—P. DE S.] They were, up to this time, evidently too cowardly to rush into the house, as we were prepared to shoot any that might attempt an entrance. We kept ourselves well hid behind the walls, from where we could not have even a random shot, for fear, in putting out our guns, they might be snatched from our hands by the enemy, who were now so close to the house that it was filled and darkened by the smoke from their guns. At length there was a sound as of a rush, and one man jumped upon the window with his gun cocked, and the moment he attempted to jump into the house, I shot him through the head, and he fell dead on the window-sill. Upon this the firing outside dropped at once. They then called upon us to come out, or they would burn the house down, but we decided not to answer them, and seeing our determination they retreated, and after a while we came out of the house, and the Korannas seeing us called out "They are taking to flight," and again approached towards us, when we again took refuge in the house. The enemy then halted for about an hour, and we took to the field, when we exchanged long shots with them, and they, after a little while, departed, taking with them the remainder of our property. We then went in search of our wives and children. The property stolen by the Korannas is the whole of the property I and the four others possessed in this world, excepting the clothes we had on and our guns. My loss consists of 1,800 sheep, 100 head of cattle and horses, two wagons with everything belonging thereto, and containing all my household things, clothes, &c., &c, also those of my wife and seven children, one spring-cart with harness complete.

Alewyn Burger lost 1,600 sheep, 101 or 102 head of cattle and horses, two wagons complete, containing also all the household things and the wardrobes of himself wife, and seven children, one spring-cart complete, and one tent, with table, chairs, &c.

Jacobus Nel lost 1,600 sheep, a span of oxen (14), two horses, three mules, two wagons, with everything of household property, and wardrobes of self and wife and five children, one tent with tables, chairs, &c.

Hendrik Cruywagen lost 500 sheep, eight oxen, one wagon, containing all household goods, and wardrobes of self, wife, and three children, and one tent with table, chairs, &c.

Stephanus Burger lost 400 sheep, 50 head of cattle, and horses, one wagon, with all housekeeping goods, and wardrobe of self, wife, and four children (one of the latter was in a dying state the night of the attack), and one tent with chairs, table, &c. (not pitched that night). In the wagons and tents were also all our provisions, laid up for a considerable time, and which all fell into the hands of the robbers.

Among the cattle taken from us there were also 100 head of cattle belonging to David Straus. Our shepherds were all taken prisoners at the commencement of the attack, and kept prisoners until after the robbery was completed, when they were sent back minus their guns (four), and one stripped naked. [The shepherds were released on their promising to bury the man I had shot.—P. DE S.] I now resume my narrative. We left the house about 1 o'clock on Sunday afternoon (the 15th), to go in search of our wives and children. After walking for about an hour and a half, we came upon some people, with wagons and carts, who were flying for fear of being attacked, and as we were weary and footsore we took the carts and proceeded in our search, taking the course up the river, and on the way we received tidings that the fugitives had been found wandering in the field by Mr. Waldstein, a trader, who had put them in his wagon (27 women and children, who had remained together, others were still wandering elsewhere) and taken them up the river in the hopes of finding assistance. On Sunday night at 12 o'clock we arrived at a place called Maanhaar, and found them there; the remainder of the fugitives were also there, and all were in a pitiable state; nearly all the women's feet were blistered, as also many of the little children's. Their clothes were all in tatters, and their bodies bleeding with scratches from the bushes (all thorn) through which they had to tear themselves and their little ones. They had found shelter with the two Lombaards, and were kept from famishing by the liberal assistance of the trader, Mr. Waldstein.

The next morning (Monday) two of our party went round to all the farmers in the neighbourhood of "De Spruyt" (close above Maanhaar), to try and induce them to go and attempt the recapture of our cattle, but as only twenty-four would volunteer (including ourselves), we found it impossible to accomplish our object with so small a force.

The number of whites who have been rendered utterly destitute by these cruel robberies consists of thirty-six men, women, and children (white), and thirty-two blacks. These are all at present with the Lombaards and John Frier, at "the Spruyt," without shelter or sufficient food. My object in coming to the magistrate here is to endeavour to obtain assistance in obtaining back some of the property stolen, and also to beg for some clothes and food for our almost naked and famishing wives and children. I am a completely ruined man, estimating my loss, at the lowest computation, at £1,600,—a terribly hard case for a man who has had to earn his bread literally in the sweat of his brow. The total loss is under £6,000.

W. P. BURGER, A.Son.

Sworn before me at Calvinia, this 19th day of November, 1868.

P. DE SMIDT, Resdt. Magistrate.

Marcus Waldstein, duly sworn, states: I am a trader, trading in the Achterveld. On the 14th instant, I was outspanned at Leeuwekraal, two hours on horseback from the Dikdoorns. There were also lying there John Frier, Elias Nel, and Frederick de Wet. My plan was to remain over the next day (Sunday). On Saturday evening, after laying myself down to sleep, I felt restless. After lying for some time in my wagon, I heard a man talking outside. I got out the people awake in the tent. They had lit a fire, and John Frier handed me the enclosed scrap of a note. It was from W. Burger, beseeching for help. [Note put in, with translation.] I at once spoke to the people about rendering assistance, and I told my boys to collect my mules. The night was, however, so dark that my men could not find the mules. I waited till daybreak. John Frier had told me it would be of no use to attempt to save cattle or other property; the Koraunas would take them, and the Burgers would defend themselves, but that we should take steps at once to save the women and children. I agreed if there was nothing else to devise, then I would go to the assistance of the women and children. Whilst considering this, twenty-seven women and children were seen approaching us, and arrived at Leeuwkraal in a most deplorable state, their clothes all torn, feet blistered, half starved and famishing from thirst; one child was in a dying state, who has since died, I believe. They had wandered and floundered through thorn bushes and holes the whole night. One woman had been carrying two little children on her back, and dropped from exhaustion on her arrival; her back had been fearfully lacerated from the friction of her burden, and her feet bare and blistered. The women asked me if I would take them on with my wagon, and I said I would; but John Frier's wife asked me first to go with a telescope to a kopje (hillock) some way off, whence I could see Dikdoorns, and try and discover what I could discover in that direction. When I reached the top I could distinctly see the clouds of smoke caused by heavy firing, and heard the reports of the guns like distant thunder. When I returned and reported what I had seen, the women said to me, "You see our husbands are in danger; we don't know whether they are dead or still alive; save us, and our helpless children." I told them if they could all get into my wagon they were welcome to do so, and I and my boys would walk on foot alongside. I had the wagon inspanned, and the whole of the unfortunate fugitives managed to crowd in it. We drove as far as Engelmanskraal, where I found two farmers of the name of Lombaard, when we halted at that place; another woman and three children arrived half dead. Here the whole party received some coffee and food. From thence I and the Lombaards left with the whole party on Sunday evening, and proceeded to Tweerivier, where, at 12 o'clock at night, arrived Willem Burger and eight others; a few hours afterwards John Frier arrived, bringing with him the last of the fugitives who were missing. From Tweerivier we took them to Franskop, where I left them in a pitiable state. Two or three of the children, I am sure, cannot live long. The whole party have now found their way to Hoek van Spruyt, where they are at present, without shelter, and hardly anything to eat. I brought one of the sufferers (Willem Burger) to the village this morning, who comes for assistance.

M. WALDSTEIN.

Sworn before me at Calvinia, this 19th day of November, 1868.

P. DE SMIDT, R. M.

Hendrick Jacobus Cruywagen sworn, states: I am one the sufferers mentioned in Willem Burger's deposition, which has just been read over to me, and I swear to the truth of the facts therein stated. The loss I suffered is correctly given. I value my loss at about £300.

TENDERS FOR THE CONVEYANCE OF MAILS.

General Post Office, Cape Town,
30th November, 1868.

NOTICE is hereby given that Sealed Tenders addressed to the Honourable the Auditor-General, and marked "Tender for Inland Mails," will be received by that Officer until Friday, the 29th January next, at 12 noon, for the conveyance of the following Mails:—

For an additional Post between Middelburg and Colesberg, by Cart, once a week each way in ten hours.

The Contract to commence on the 1st March, 1869, and to terminate on the 31st December, 1870; but either of the contracting parties will be at liberty to terminate the same upon giving four months' notice, in writing to that effect.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

No Tender will be attended to unless prepared in proper form, in conformity with this Notice, and of which copies may be obtained either at this Office, or that of the respective Civil Commissioners and Postmasters.

The Tenders must include all intermediate Post Offices between Stations.

It is desired that the Tenderers should state the number of relays of Horses to be used, and the Stations at which they will be kept; as, also, at what price they will engage to convey extra Posts or Expresses on Horseback on the Post Line for which they tender.

Payment will be made to the Contractor monthly, either at the Colonial Treasury in Cape Town, or by the Civil Commissioner of any Division he may select; provided the Contract Bond shall previously have been transmitted to this Office, duly completed, which Bond the Contractor will be required to execute in the presence of two competent Witnesses, together with two good and approved Sureties, to be provided by him, for the due fulfilment of the Contract; and he must accompany his Tender with a written engagement from his Sureties to bind themselves as such; as, also, with a Certificate from the Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate of the District in which he resides, as to the sufficiency of such Sureties. In the Tender, the names of the Contractor and his Sureties should be stated at full length, and their respective occupations should also be mentioned therein. The Security required will, in each case, be equal to the payment to be made by Government to the Contractor for one year of the Contract.

The Contractor will be required to provide his own means of conveyance for crossing rivers, without detention; and all penalties for delay, from whatever cause arising, will be rigidly exacted. Any party tendering is required to specify in his Tender the means to be adopted by him for crossing or avoiding swollen rivers, either by applying some contrivance, or leaving the usual line, and also the delay, if any, to be allowed on such occasions.

The Tenderers are required to convey the Mails in covered Carts on springs, conveyed by not fewer than two horses each.

The Contractor's Carts are to be light, but strong, sufficiently large to contain the Mail Bags, and to be furnished with Waterproof Wells, or Boxes, with strong Locks and Keys, to hold the Mail Packets, for enclosing and securing which it will be necessary for the Contractor to supply Waterproof Bags; or, failing these, the Cart is to be supplied with Tarpaulins, to be strapped over it and over any Mail Packets that may have to be secured to it, and which are to be lashed on with good stout riems. The Carts to be provided with two good Lamps, with strong Reflectors, which are to be kept lighted at night when travelling.

The Contractor is bound, at his own expense, to provide the means of protecting the Mail Packets from the weather, or injury in transferring them from one Post Cart to another, on the line of road herein referred to, and will be held responsible for any damage which may occur to them whilst being transferred from his charge.

The Contractor will be at liberty to carry such number of Passengers or Parcels in the Mail Vehicle as he may think fit, and to make his own charge for the accommodation thus afforded: provided that part of the Box or Well of the Cart speciaity to be appropriated for the Mail shall not be mixed up with any other Packets, &c., not appertaining to such Mail.

But the Contractor will not be allowed to carry in his Vehicles, by himself or any of his Servants, any Letters or Newspapers, excepting those delivered to him by the respective Postmasters, or for delivery at any Post Office, nor are they knowingly to permit any Passenger to carry any Letter or Newspaper.

The Post Rider shall be provided by the Contractor with a Bugle or Horn, to be sounded when approaching any Post Office or Post Station.

For any detention of the Mail, or any part thereof, beyond the time specified for the distance allowed, the Contractor shall forfeit according to the following scale:—

	£	s.	d
For every period not exceeding half an hour –	0	2	6
„ half an hour, and not exceeding one hour –	0	7	6
„ one hour, and not exceeding an hour and a half – – – – – – – – –	0	15	0
„ one hour and a half, and not exceeding two hours – – – – – – –	1	5	0
„ two hours, and not exceeding two hours and a half – – – – – – –	2	0	0

and for every additional half-hour beyond two hours and a half, the additional sum of Ten Shillings.

In the event of the Contractor failing or neglecting for three Posts in succession to convey the Mails within the time herein stipulated, the Postmaster-General for the time being, in that case to have it in his power, should he so think fit, to advertise for Tenders for a new Contract without any reference to the clause for giving four months' notice for an earlier termination thereof (which clause is to be null and void); and any loss that may accrue by reason that the terms of the new Contract are higher than the terms of the old is to be borne by the Contractor.

And inasmuch as serious irregularities have arisen from changing Vehicles and shifting the Mails, the Contractor will have to bind himself that as often as any Post Boy of his shall receive any Mail Bags or Post Office Packets into any Vehicle at any Post Office, such Bags and Packets shall be carried to their destination in that same Vehicle, and that none of the said Bags or Parcels shall, between the Post Office where the same were received and the Post Office where the same should be delivered, be shifted or removed from that Vehicle to any other Vehicle or mode of conveyance, unless with the permission and in the presence of some Postmaster, or unless the Vehicle carrying the same shall, by accident or other cause arising after the same shall have been received, be rendered incapable of carrying on the Mail to its destination. And for any and every breach of this stipulation the Contractor will have to pay to the Postmaster-General for the time being whatever penalty he shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds sterling.

In case any Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail shall not be regularly delivered at the same time as the rest thereof, the Contractor shall be bound to pay to the Postmaster-General, for or in respect of every such lost or missing Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail, such sum as the said Postmaster shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds Sterling, unless the Contractor shall prove that such Bag, Packet, or other part of any such Mail was lost or delayed by inevitable accident against which it was impossible to guard. And the Contractor shall likewise be liable to the Postmaster-General, claiming on behalf of whom it may concern, to make good all loss or damage sustained by any Person whomsoever, by reason that any Mail or Bag, Parcel, or other par of any Mail, shall have been lost or delayed for want of due and proper care and diligence of the Contractor, or any person in his service.

Should the said Contractor fail in the performance of his agreement at any period during the existence of the same, then, and in that case, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General for the time being, and for all Persons thereto authorized by him, to hire, or cause to be hired such Person or Persons, Horse or Horses, as shall be required for the due performance thereof; and all and every expense attendant upon the same shall be borne and sustained by the said Contractor.

And it is lastly agreed that in case of any act of omission, constituting a breach by the Contractor of any of the provisions or stipulations of this Contract, not being an act or omission for which any other particular penalty is hereinbefore provided, the Postmaster-General shall have the option of claiming from the Contractor, for and on account of every such act or omission, respectively, the payment of Ten Pounds Sterling, by way of assessed and liquidated damages, and not as a penalty; or otherwise, of claiming and recovering such further or other sum as the said Postmaster shall prove to be the amount of loss or damages actually sustained from or by reason of such act or omission.

The Contractor will be bound to provide a passage in his Mail Conveyance for an Officer of this Department, when travelling on public business, without charge, when required so to do.

Further information may be obtained on application at the Office of the Postmaster-General.

G. W. AITCHISON, Officer in Charge.

Manager and Secretary.to—William Cleland.

This Company having a Revenue from Premiums alone of One Hundred and Forty Thousand Pounds per Annum, is in a position to transact every description of LIFE ASSURANCE on as favourable terms as any other Company of equal standing.

Holders of Life Policies on the profit scale, who may hereafter fill confidential situations and require to be guaranteed, may secure considerable reductions in their life premiums, by making their life policies contingent on the continuance of fidelity.

Three fourths of the Profits are divisible amongst the Policy-holders on the "Profit Scale of Premiums," affording the advantages of Mutual Assurance, with the further security of a large subscribed capital, the prudent employment of which gives a greater ratio of increase to business and to profits than a purely Mutual Society can achieve.

Assurances are granted for £10,000 on a single life.

Premiums may be paid in one sum, or yearly, or by half-yearly, or quarterly instalments.

Policies upon which five years' payments have been made, are purchased by the Society or the Policy-holders, if unable to continue paying, may receive fresh Policies in exchange (on which no further payment is required), equivalent to the then value of the Premiums already paid.

On Policies amounting to £200 and upwards for the whole of life, one-half of the Premium may remain unpaid at Interest for five years.

No extra Premium charged for voyage to and residence in any part of Europe, New Zealand, Australia (except at the "Diggings,") the Cape Colony, or British America.

This is the only Society transacting Life Assurance with Fidelity Guarantee, whose Policies of Guarantee are authorized (by Special Act of Parliament) to be accepted by Government.

The Guarantee Policies of this Society are accepted by the Treasury, Poor Law Board, and other public departments, and by the leading London and Provincial Joint-Stock and Private Banks, the principal Railway Companies, Life and Fire Offices, Public Companies, Institutions, and Commercial Firms throughout the Kingdom

The Premiums are payable yearly in advance; or at the option of the Assured, half-yearly, with a slight increase of the Rate.

This being a MUTUAL ASSURANCE SOCIETY, the profits are not, as in Proprietary Companies, divided between the Partners and the Assured,—the whole belong to the Policy-holders.

The Profits are divided amongst the holders of Policies at the termination of every period of THREE YEARS, and each holder may determine that his share shall be added to the sum assured by him,—or converted into Present Payment—or applied in Reduction of the future Annual Premiums payable by him.

The last Division was declared at the Annual Meeting held on the 6th July, 1868. The Profits then divided were at the rate of 2½ per cent. per annum, or 7½ per cent. for he three years. Thus a Policy of £500, taken out before 1st November, 1865, has £37 10s., three years' Profits added to it; a Policy of the same amount, taken out before 1st November, 1867, has £12 10s., one year's Profits added; while the total accumulated Profits on a Policy of £500, taken out in 1845, the first year of the Society's existence, now amount to the large sum of £401 0s. 4d.

The next Division of Profits will take place in July, 1871.

Persons proposing for assurance will be required to produce Certificates of Baptism, or such other proofs of age as the Directors may deem to be satisfactory.

Candidates for assurance are not charged with fees payable to the Medical Officers of the Society.

Prospectuses, Forms of Proposal, and all information respecting the Society may be obtained at the Office in Cape Town, or at any of the Agencies throughout the Colony

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Change in Cape Recife Light to warn Ships of too near an approach to the Roman Rock in Algoa Bay.

ON and after the 1st December, 1868, a ray of Red Light will be shown from the Cape Recife Lighthouse between a N. 39° E. bearing, and the shore northwards from the Lighthouse.

Bearings are Magnetic.

DIRECTIONS.

Vessels bound for Algoa Bay, after passing Cape Recife, should not open the Red Light at the Cape until the Harbour Light upon the Hill is seen (which will first show red on a N. W. bearing, and lead nine-tenths of a mile eastward of the Roman, where a course for the anchorage may be shaped with safety). As the Hill Light cannot be seen from the Roman Rock, a Ship is in safety so long as the Light can be seen; but as its southern extreme of visibility leads only two cables north of the Rock, it is recommended that a course for the anchorage should not be shaped until the region of the Red Light is passed, and the Hill Light shows White on a N. W. by W. bearing.

In beating in or out of the anchorage, the opening of the Red Light at either of the Lighthouses will be a signal for Vessels to tack when near the vicinity of the Roman Rock.

The Tenders must include all intermediate Post Offices between Stations.

It is desired that the Tenderers should state the number of relays of Horses to be used, and the Stations at which they will be kept; as, also, at what price they will engage to convey extra Posts or Expresses on Horseback on the Post Line for which they tender.

Payment will be made to the Contractor monthly, either at the Colonial Treasury in Cape Town, or by the Civil Commissioner of any Division he may select; provided the Contract Bond shall previously have been transmitted to this Office, duly completed, which Bond the Contractor will be required to execute in the presence of two competent Witnesses, together with two good and approved Sureties, to be provided by him, for the due fulfilment of the Contract; and he must accompany his Tender with a written engagement from his Sureties to bind themselves as such; as, also, with a Certificate from the Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate of the District in which he resides, as to the sufficiency of such Sureties. In the Tender, the names of the Contractor and his Sureties should be stated at full length, and their respective occupations should also be mentioned therein. The Security required will, in each case, be equal to the payment to be made by Government to the Contractor for one year of the Contract.

The Contractor will be required to provide his own means of conveyance for crossing rivers, without detention; and all penalties for delay, from whatever cause arising, will be rigidly exacted. Any party tendering is required to specify in his Tender the means to be adopted by him for crossing or avoiding swollen rivers, either by applying some contrivance, or leaving the usual line, and also the delay, if any, to be allowed on such occasions.

The Tenderers are required to convey the Mails in covered Carts on springs, conveyed by not fewer than two horses each.

The Contractor's Carts are to be light, but strong, sufficiently large to contain the Mail Bags, and to be furnished with Waterproof Wells, or Boxes, with strong Locks and Keys, to hold the Mail Packets, for enclosing and securing which it will be necessary for the Contractor to supply Waterproof Bags; or, failing these, the Cart is to be supplied with Tarpaulins, to be strapped over it and over any Mail Packets that may have to be secured to it, and which are to be lashed on with good stout riems. The Carts to be provided with two good Lamps, with strong Reflectors, which are to be kept lighted at night when travelling.

The Contractor is bound, at his own expense, to provide the means of protecting the Mail Packets from the weather, or injury in transferring them from one Post Cart to another, on the line of road herein referred to, and will be held responsible for any damage which may occur to them whilst being transferred from his charge.

The Contractor will be at liberty to carry such number of Passengers or Parcels in the Mail Vehicle as he may think fit, and to make his own charge for the accommodation thus afforded; provided that part of the Box or Well of the Cart specially to be appropriated for the Mail shall not be mixed up with any other Packets, &c., not appertaining to such Mail.

But the Contractor will not be allowed to carry in his Vehicles, by himself or any of his Servants, any Letters or Newspapers, excepting those delivered to him by the respective Postmasters, or for delivery at any Post Office, nor are they knowingly to permit any Passenger to carry any Letter or Newspaper.

The Post Rider shall be provided by the Contractor with a Bugle or Horn, to be sounded when approaching any Post Office or Post Station.

For any detention of the Mail, or any part thereof, beyond the time specified for the distance allowed, the Contractor shall forfeit according to the following scale:—

	£	s.	d
For every period not exceeding half an hour –	0	2	6
„ half an hour, and not exceeding one hour –	0	7	6
„ one hour, and not exceeding an hour and a half – – – – – – – – –	0	15	0
„ one hour and a half, and not exceeding two hours – – – – – – – –	1	5	0
„ two hours, and not exceeding two hours and a half – – – – – – – –	2	0	0

and for every additional half-hour beyond two hours and a half, the additional sum of Ten Shillings.

In the event of the Contractor failing or neglecting for three Posts in succession to convey the Mails within the time herein stipulated, the Postmaster-General for the time being, in that case to have it in his power, should he so think fit, to advertise for Tenders for a new Contract without any reference to the clause for giving four months' notice for an earlier termination thereof (which clause is to be null and void); and any loss that may accrue by reason that the terms of the new Contract are higher than the terms of the old is to be borne by the Contractor.

And inasmuch as serious irregularities have arisen from changing Vehicles and shifting the Mails, the Contractor will have to bind himself that as often as any Post Boy of his shall receive any Mail Bags or Post Office Packets into any Vehicle at any Post Office, such Bags and Packets shall be carried to their destination in that same Vehicle, and that none of the said Bags or Parcels shall, between the Post Office where the same were received and the Post Office where the same should be delivered, be shifted or removed from that Vehicle to any other Vehicle or mode of conveyance, unless with the permission and in the presence of some Postmaster, or unless the Vehicle carrying the same shall, by accident or other cause arising after the same shall have been received, be rendered incapable of carrying on the Mail to its destination. And for any and every breach of this stipulation the Contractor will have to pay to the Postmaster-General for the time being whatever penalty he shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds sterling.

In case any Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail shall not be regularly delivered at the same time as the rest thereof, the Contractor shall be bound to pay to the Postmaster-General, for or in respect of every such lost or missing Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail, such sum as the said Postmaster shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds Sterling, unless the Contractor shall prove that such Bag, Packet, or other part of any such Mail was lost or delayed by inevitable accident against which it was impossible to guard. And the Contractor shall likewise be liable to the Postmaster-General, claiming on behalf of whom it may concern, to make good all loss or damage sustained by any Person whomsoever, by reason that any Mail or Bag, Parcel, or other part of any Mail, shall have been lost or delayed for want of due and proper care and diligence of the Contractor, or any person in his service.

Should the said Contractor fail in the performance of his agreement at any period during the existence of the same, then, and in that case, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General for the time being, and for all Persons thereto authorized by him, to hire, or cause to be hired such Person or Persons, Horse or Horses, as shall be required for the due performance thereof, and all and every expense attendant upon the same shall be borne and sustained by the said Contractor.

And it is lastly agreed that in case of any act of omission, constituting a breach by the Contractor of any of the provisions or stipulations of this Contract, not being an act or omission for which any other particular penalty is hereinbefore provided, the Postmaster-General shall have the option of claiming from the Contractor, for and on account of every such act or omission, respectively, the payment of Ten Pounds Sterling, by way of assessed and liquidated damages, and not as a penalty; or otherwise, of claiming and recovering such further or other sum as the said Postmaster shall prove to be the amount of loss or damages actually sustained from or by reason of such act or omission.

The Contractor will be bound to provide a passage in his Mail Conveyance for an Officer of this Department, when travelling on public business, without charge, when required so to do.

Further information may be obtained on application at the Office of the Postmaster-General.

G. W. AITCHISON, Officer in Charge.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Change in Cape Recife Light to warn Ships of too near an approach to the Roman Rock in Algoa Bay.

ON and after the 1st December, 1868, a ray of Red Light will be shown from the Cape Recife Lighthouse between a N. 39° E. bearing, and the shore northwards from the Lighthouse.

Bearings are Magnetic.

DIRECTIONS.

Vessels bound for Algoa Bay, after passing Cape Recife, should not open the Red Light at the Cape until the Harbour Light upon the Hill is seen (which will first show red on a N. W. bearing, and lead nine-tenths of a mile eastward of the Roman, where a course for the anchorage may be shaped with safety). As the Hill Light cannot be seen from the Roman Rock, a Ship is in safety so long as the Light can be seen; but as its southern extreme of visibility leads only two cables north of the Rock, it is recommended that a course for the anchorage should not be shaped until the region of the Red Light is passed, and the Hill Light shows White on a N. W. by W. bearing.

In beating in or out of the anchorage, the opening of the Red Light at either of the Lighthouses will be a signal for Vessels to tack when near the vicinity of the Roman Rock.

This Company having a Revenue from Premiums alone of One Hundred and Forty Thousand Pounds per Annum, is in a position to transact every description of LIFE ASSURANCE on as favourable terms as any other Company of equal standing.

Holders of Life Policies on the profit scale, who may hereafter fill confidential situations and require to be guaranteed, may secure considerable reductions in their life premiums, by making their life policies contingent on the continuance of fidelity.

Three fourths of the Profits are divisible amongst the Policy-holders on the "Profit Scale of Premiums," affording the advantages of Mutual Assurance, with the further security of a large subscribed capital, the prudent employment of which gives a greater ratio of increase to business and to profits than a purely Mutual Society can achieve.

Assurances are granted for £10,000 on a single life

Premiums may be paid in one sum, or yearly, or by half-yearly, or quarterly instalments.

Policies upon which five years' payments have been made, are purchased by the Society or the Policy-holders, if unable to continue paying, may receive fresh Policies in exchange (on which no further payment is required), equivalent to the then value of the Premiums already paid.

On Policies amounting to £200 and upwards for the whole of life, one-half of the Premium may remain unpaid at Interest for five years.

No extra Premium charged for voyage to and residence in any part of Europe, New Zealand, Australia (except at the "Diggings,") the Cape Colony, or British America.

This is the only Society transacting Life Assurance with Fidelity Guarantee, whose Policies of Guarantee are authorized (by Special Act of Parliament) to be accepted by Government.

The Guarantee Policies of this Society are accepted by the Treasury, Poor Law Board, and other public departments, and by the leading London and Provincial Joint-Stock and Private Banks, the principal Railway Companies, Life and Fire Offices, Public Companies, Institutions, and Commercial Firms throughout the Kingdom.

BERIGT AAN ZEEVARENDEN.

VERANDERING in het licht aan Kaap Recieffe om de Schepen te waarschuwen tegen een te digt naderen aan de Roman Rock in Algoabaai.

Van af den 1sten December, 1868, zal een roode lichtstraal worden vertoond op den Vuurtoren van Kaap Recieffe, tusschen N. 39° O. streek en de kust noordwaarts van den Vuurtoren.

De Kompasstreken zijn Magnetisch.

AANWIJZINGEN.

Schepen die naar Algoabaai bestemd zijn, moeten na het passeren van Kaap Recieffe niet op het roode licht aanhouden voor dat het Havenlicht op den Heuvel gezien wordt, hetwelk zich eerst rood vertoonen zal in een N.W. streek en negen tienden van eene mijl oostelijk van de Roman Rock zal leiden, van waar men met veiligheid naar de ankerplaats kan komen. Daar het Havenlicht niet van de Roman Rock kan gezien worden, is een schip veilig, zoolang men dat licht kan zien; maar daar deszelfs zuidelijk uiterste van zigtbaarheid slechts twee kabellengten noordwaarts van de Rock leidt, is het aan te raden geen koers te zetten naar de ankerplaats voordat men den lichtkring van het Roode Licht voorbij is en het Heuvellicht zich Wit vertoont in een N.W. ten W. streek.

Bij het in- of uitloopen van de ankerplaats zal de opening van het roode licht aan een of ander der Vuurtorens een teeken zijn voor de Schepen om over stag te gaan wanneer zij digt in de nabijheid van de Roman Rock zijn.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 378, 1868.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
10th December, 1868.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the publication for general information of the following correspondence relative to depredations committed by Natives in the Division of Namaqualand.

By command of His Excellency the Governor

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Office, 21st November, 1868.

The Resident Magistrate, Namaqualand,

SIR.—I am directed by His Excellency the Governor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated the 14th instant, reporting the proceedings of the party you had sent out under Chief Constable Leffler to repress the Bushmen and others who are committing depredations in your Division. His Excellency cannot perceive how under the circumstances, any other steps than those adopted could have been taken with a view to avoid excessive expense, and prevent the needless sacrifice of life.

Although it may be found difficult in the present state of things to adhere strictly to the letter of the law in these unusual efforts to put down marauding, His Excellency approves of the instructions you issued to refrain from taking life except under circumstances which would be justified in law

His Excellency hopes that you will continue to be as careful as possible not to incur excessive expenditure, seeing, as you will possibly yourself admit, that the results have hitherto been very incommensurate with the expense. His Excellency approves of the instructions you have given for abandoning the protection of Pella and continuing the pursuit of actual marauders.

With reference to your letter to Mr. Leffler, in which you allude to Field-cornet Meyer having delivered over to you seventeen prisoners, His Excellency desires me to direct your attention to a report of the proceedings of that officer contained in the copy of the Advertiser and Mail forwarded to you under another cover, and to inquire whether the report is correct, or what amount of truth it contains. It appears to His Excellency that there is little hope of making any permanent impression upon these marauding bands until the Border Police shall be finally organized and in active operation. This, it is expected, will be accomplished very shortly.

I shall return the map which accompanied your letter as soon as a copy has been made for record here.

I have, &c.,

R. SOUTHEY, Colonial Secretary.

Resident Magistrate's Office, Namaqualand,
28th November, 1868.

The Honourable the Colonial Secretary.

SIR,—I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st inst., in answer to my report of the proceedings of my chief constable in Bushmanland.

It is very satisfactory to me to learn that the steps I have taken hitherto have met with His Excellency's approval. And I beg to assure you that I shall continue to use my utmost efforts to avoid unnecessary expense in this matter, and to prevent the sacrifice of the lives of innocent persons.

With regard to the extract you have forwarded to me from the Advertiser and Mail newspaper, I have to state that there is a glimmering of truth in this report of Mr. Meyer's doings; but that it is so mixed up with error as to be wholly unreliable.

On the 21st October last Mr. Meyer, in company with a body of special constables, surrounded a kraal of Bushmen, several of whom were suspected of the theft of sheep and cattle, and for some of whom warrants had been issued. He found eight men at this kraal. Six of these surrendered, but the other two endeavoured to make their escape. One of these two carried a gun, but the other, if he was armed at all, had only a bow and arrows. The accounts differ, and I have not yet been able to make a full inquiry into the matter. Both these men were accused of theft of cattle, or sheep, or goats, and for one of the two I had issued a warrant. Mr. Meyer and some of his party seem to have chased them.

The Bushman who carried the gun then attempted to fire at them, but the powder flashed in the pan, and there was no explosion. Meyer then shot at him and missed him, and then the Bushman shot at one of Meyer's constables, the bullet passing close to him. After this several shots were fired by Meyer's party upon the two Bushmen, and they were both shot dead. What I now relate in this matter is chiefly from my recollection of what Meyer told me. I shall, of course, hold an inquiry as soon as possible, and forward the depositions to the Attorney-General.

On the 23rd October, Mr. Meyer proceeded to another Bushman's Kraal at Swabies, where there seems to have been nine men, who possessed five guns. A farmer named Jan Basson had been there previously, and had found eight stolen horses under their care, but had only succeeded in recovering three of them, the Bushmen having, by their acts, threatened to shoot him if he took the others. Basson told Meyer of this, and Meyer states in his affidavit before me:

"I then went to the place with twenty-one men. At sunrise on the 23rd I was about one thousand yards from the werf. I went forward with a few men, and called out that all the men were to come out, and were to lay down their arms There was an answer made by a woman, and I understood her to say that the men were not at home. I then went closer, and called out again that the men were to lay down their arms and come out. I received the same answer, that the men were all away. I then rode towards the werf, thinking the men were not there. When I was about 150 yards off I saw a man run out of one of the huts with a gun in his hand. I then turned back at once. Next I heard a report, and saw that the man had fired towards some of my party. I then fired two shots at him, but missed him. Then he fired at me. The ball passed close to me, and I remarked to Farmer, who was with me, that that man had a rifle. I could tell by the whiz of the bullet that it came from a rifle. He fired from a hole into which he had got. Other Bushmen then came out, and also began firing at us. They had prepared their holes, into which they got to protect themselves from our fire, and from which they fired at us. They had only one rifle, and we soon got out of range of the smooth bores; but they continued firing with the rifle for a long time. We returned their fire with the hope of drawing them out of the holes, but we did not succeed, and had to retire. On this occasion we found five horses at the werf; two of them were spanned, and three were running loose. I sent men to fetch these horses. Three of them were within range of the Bushmen's guns, and they fired at these men when they were taking the horses." (The horses were afterwards identified as having been stolen.) "I returned to Boschluis, taking the horses with me. On the 27th I returned to Swabies. I called again to the Bushmen to come out. I continued calling for about half an hour. At last Flink came out He came to me, and I asked him where the other men were. He said they were in the holes. I said, 'You go back, and tell the others to lay down their guns and come out to me.' He went back, and then Valtyn Flink came out. I sent him back with a message that if they did not come out I would shoot them all in their holes. He went back, and then Jas. Flink came to me. Flim Flink came again. I sent Flink back to fetch the women and children, and told him to tell the men I would not wait any longer. He returned with his wife only, and said the men said I must come to them, that they would not come to me. I had seven Damaras with me, and they volunteered to go and fetch them out of the holes. They went and fetched them, and took away their guns."

Meyer and his party then searched the kraal, and found the hides of three horses and a quantity of horse flesh. The hides were recognized as those of missing horses. The rifle, too, was recognized. It had been lent to a herd, who is supposed to have been murdered, but whose body has not yet been found.

Each of the above Publications offers very good opportunities of publicity to Advertisers, and the terms are extremely reasonable. Where it may be desired to advertise in all or several of the Annuals, a reduction in price will be made.

THE OCTAVO DIARY is a new Publication, and is intended to meet the want for a Diary of a portable form adapted to Colonial use. With a view to the requirements of the Country Districts the Book is so designed that the Postage will be trifling. Besides the Diary portion (arranged three days on a page), there will be a Bills-Due Section, allowing for Entries to June, 1870. The Miscellaneous Information will be adapted to all parts of the Colony.

THE GENERAL DIRECTORY AND COLONIAL GUIDE will embody the main features of the Directory and Almanac of 1868, but to make the book as much as possible a Handbook to and for the Colony at large, some important modifications and additions will be made. The Residence Directory of Cape Town will no longer form part of this volume, but, acting upon suggestions from many quarters, will be published in a separate form. On the other hand, all the most important reference matter of the 1868 Directory (including the Census Tables, and the Index of Statutes and Acts of Parliament corrected to the Session of 1868) will be reprinted. The Miscellaneous Information will be enlarged by the introduction of useful Interest and other Tables. The Business Information respecting Port Elizabeth, Graham's Town, and the Country Districts will be amplified and improved by corrections and suggestions from the most competent resident authorities. The general usefulness of the Book will be added to further by the introduction of several new features, among which will be included a complete alphabetical list of the Civil Servants throughout the Colony.

THE DIRECTORY OF CAPE TOWN will consist of a carefully compiled list of the Inhabitants within the Municipality, arranged both Alphabetically and in Streets, preceded by an Almanac, Astronomical Information, and Gardener's Calendar for 1869.

To Advertisers.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be received for the GENERAL DIRECTORY OF THE COLONY, and the DIRECTORY OF CAPE TOWN until the 15th Dec.

BERIGT AAN ZEEVARENDEN.

VERANDERING in het licht aan Kaap Recife en de Schepen te waarschuwen tegen een te digt naderen aan de Roman Rock in Algoabaai.

Van af den 1sten December, 1868, zal een roode lichtstraal worden vertoond op den Vuurtoren van Kaap Recife, tusschen N. 39° O. streek en de kust noordwaarts van den Vuurtoren.

De Kompasstreken zijn Magnetisch.

AANWIJZINGEN.

Schepen die naar Algoabaai bestemd zijn, moeten na het passeren van Kaap Recieffe niet op het roode licht stouden voor dat het Havenlicht op den Heuvel gezien wordt, hetwelk zich eerst rood vertoonen zal in een N.W. streek en ongeveer den van eene mijl oostelijk van de Roman Rock te leiden, van waar men met veiligheid naar de ankerplaats kan komen. Daar het Havenlicht niet van de Roman Rock kan gezien worden, is een schip veilig, zoolang men dit licht kan zien; maar daar desselfs zuidelijk uiterste van nagenoeg slechts twee kabellengten noordwaarts van de Rock leidt, is het aan te raden geen koers te zetten naar de ankerplaats voordat men den lichtkring van het Roode Licht voorbij is en het Heuvellicht zich Wit vertoont in een N.W. ten W. streek.

Bij het in- of uitloopen van de ankerplaats zal de opening van het roode licht aan een of ander der Vuurtorens een teeken zijn voor de Schepen om over stag te gaan wanneer zij digt in de nabijheid van de Roman Rock zijn.

Each of the above Publications offers very good opportunities of publicity to Advertisers, and the terms are extremely reasonable. Where it may be desired to advertise in all or several of the Annuals, a reduction in price will be made.

THE GENERAL DIRECTORY AND COLONIAL GUIDE will embody the main features of the Directory and Almanac of 1868, but to make the book as much as possible a Handbook to and for the Colony at large, some important modifications and additions will be made. The Residence Directory of Cape Town will no longer form part of this volume, but, acting upon suggestions from many quarters, will be published in a separate form. On the other hand, all the most important reference matter of the 1868 Directory (including the Census Tables, and the Index of Statutes and Acts of Parliament corrected to the Session of 1868) will be reprinted. The Miscellaneous Information will be enlarged by the introduction of useful Interest and other Tables. The Business Information respecting Port Elizabeth, Graham's Town, and the Country Districts will be amplified and improved by corrections and suggestions from the most competent resident authorities. The general usefulness of the Book will be added to further by the introduction of several new features, among which will be included a complete alphabetical list of the Civil Servants throughout the Colony.

THE DIRECTORY OF CAPE TOWN will consist of a carefully compiled list of the Inhabitants within the Municipality, arranged both Alphabetically and in Streets, preceded by an Almanac, Astronomical Information, and Gardener's Calendar for 1869.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be received for the GENERAL DIRECTORY OF THE COLONY, and the DIRECTORY OF CAPE TOWN until the 15th Dec.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE

Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1868.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 384, 1868.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
17th December, 1868.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the publication for general information of the following Correspondence with the President of the Orange Free State.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

Bloemfontein, 4th December, 1868.

His Excellency the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope.

SIR,—Regretting to perceive from your Excellency's letter of the 13th ult. that I have not succeeded in conveying the object of my letters complaining of the thefts and acts of violence committed by the Basutos since the Proclamation by which they were accepted as British subjects, I shall endeavour to state it more clearly.

Our Government maintains that the Proclamation of the Basutos at the time and in the manner in which it took place was calculated to be, and has proved, injurious and prejudicial to the interests of the Orange Free State, and that whilst permits for the purchase of arms and ammunition are still peremptorily refused to our Government and people, contrary to the stipulation of the Convention, the Basutos are placed in the opportunity of obtaining large supplies of arms and ammunition, with which they cross the line fixed by the Treaty of Thaba Bosigo, to carry on depredations and outrages in the conquered and annexed territory as well as in the old Free State. We further maintain that for the thefts and acts of violence committed by the Basutos after they were proclaimed as British subjects, our Government is entitled to claim compensation from Her Majesty's Government, for the indemnification of our Burghers who have sustained these losses, and with that view, and in the hope that your Excellency would take steps to put a stop to these depredations and outrages, as we are prevented by the Proclamation from pursuing and punishing the thieves across the line fixed by the Treaty of Thaba Bosigo, I have in my former letters furnished your Excellency with a list of the several thefts and acts of violence committed by the Basutos since the Proclamation of the 13th March last. At the proper time I shall supply a further list in support of our claim.

In my letter of the 3rd June last I endeavoured to point out, and our correspondence shows, that our protest against the acceptance of the Basutos as British subjects and the order stopping the supply of our ammunition did not preclude our Government from negotiating about a provisional line under the guarantee therein mentioned. As we considered it of the utmost importance to have a clear understanding of the views of Her Majesty's Government as to the meaning and effect of the Convention, our Government deputed delegates to lay our complaint against the breach of the Convention before Her Majesty's Government; but we fully agree that negotiations can most conveniently take place on the spot.

I am glad to learn that your Excellency has written to Mr. Bowker with reference to the detachment of the F. A. and M. Police stationed at Mr. du Toit's Farm, in the conquered and annexed territory, as mentioned in his letter dated Rouxville, the 25th October.

I have &c.,

J. H. BRAND.

Government House, Cape Town,
December 16, 1868.

His Honour the President of the Orange Free State.

SIR,—I beg to take this opportunity of acquainting you that during the last few days I have received not only your letter of the 4th instant, but also a Dispatch from the Duke of Buckingham, communicating to me the main points of the discussion which took place between himself and the delegates from your Government; and although no doubt those gentlemen have made you aware of what passed, I think I shall do right in informing you of the views of His Grace, as explained by himself, by which, of course, it will be proper for me to be guided.

The delegates objected mainly to the assumption of the Basutos as British subjects, to the stoppage of the supply of ammunition, and to my letter of the 27th March last, from Colesberg, which had created an unfavourable impression.

His Grace informed them that the assumption of the Basutos as British subjects must be regarded as an accomplished fact; and that with respect to the trade in ammunition Her Majesty's Government did not conceive, and could not therefore admit, that they were bound to permit the supply of ammunition to the Free States under circumstances of hostility, although they did not deny that they were restrained by the terms of the conventions made with those States from allowing any supply to the Natives.

He informed them that there was not, and had not been, any desire or disposition on the part of the British Government to act in an unfriendly way towards the Orange Free State; that it could not be doubted that they must benefit by any measure which would secure peace in their country; and that it was for the sole object of putting an end to the chronic state of warfare which had existed, to the great detriment of the British Colonies and to the peace and security of European settlers in South Africa, and of insuring permanent peace, that Her Majesty's Government had decided, not by any violent step, but in compliance with the reiterated wish of the Basutos, to recognize them as British subjects.

The Duke of Buckingham stated likewise to the delegates that I had been directed, as a principal part of that measure, to confer with your Government, with the view of making a mutual agreement for establishing a proper boundary between the Free State and Basutoland; that I appeared to him to have taken proper steps to comply with that direction; and that Her Majesty's Government had therefore no intention of withdrawing the negotiation from my hands, but would continue to entrust to me the full powers which they were aware had been already given to me to arrange it.

In reply to the argument of the delegates, that by a recent treaty with the Basutos a new boundary had been settled, and that no further negotiation or agreement on that subject was required, His Grace remarked that whatever might have been the circumstances under which such a treaty had been made, or presumed to have been made, it had been superseded by the state of war which followed it, and in fact had arisen out of it, and that the question of boundary was entirely open.

The Duke of Buckingham further intimated to the delegates, that as my letter of the 27th March, from Colesberg, to which they so strongly objected, had not led to a successful result, nor in fact even to negotiation, he saw no reason why it should not be treated as withdrawn, leaving the negotiation to proceed as originating from my first communication to you,—whereby, perhaps some fresh suggestion might arise more acceptable to your Government than the proposal to which they so strongly objected. His Grace added that it seemed to him that there could be but a common feeling between the two Governments as to the importance of arriving at a boundary which should be not merely a solution of a temporary difficulty, but which should have in itself, from a judicious and equitable selection, the elements of permanency.

I trust I may not be deceived in the expectation, founded on your last letter as well as on the Secretary of State's Dispatch, that it may now be found practicable to arrive at a solution of the difficulties with which we have been so long contending, and to bring to a termination the strife which has worked, and is still working, so much mischief. I can have no hesitation in withdrawing my letter from Colesberg, and thus removing any ground for dissatisfaction it may have caused; while you, on the other hand, have expressed your full agreement that negotiations can most conveniently take place on the spot.

You are aware that my movements must depend much on the session of Parliament, and that it is only during the first few months of the coming year that I can conveniently absent myself from Cape Town. I shall therefore make arrangements for reaching Aliwal not later than the 1st February next, prepared to proceed to such a point on the north side of the Orange River as may then appear to be most convenient for all parties; and I trust that I shall receive an expression of the willingness of your Government then to enter into negotiations.

I forbear from entering on the subject of the wrongs and injuries inflicted on each other by both parties, to which you have again referred in your letter of the 4th, as I am confident that all questions of this nature can be best disposed of by friendly personal discussion.

I have, &c.,

P. E. WODEHOUSE.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY SIR PHILIP EDMOND WODEHOUSE,

Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Vice-Admiral of the same, and Her Majesty's High Commissioner, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS, by a Proclamation dated the 12th day of February, 1866, a Toll-bar was established at Pietersfontein, in the Division of Piquetberg, and certain Tolls or Rates were fixed to be demanded at the said Toll-bar: And whereas the Division Council of Piquetberg, acting under and by virtue of the 23rd Section of the Act No. 9 of 1858, have recommended that the said Toll bar should be removed:

Art. 1. With regard to the exaction of Port and Navigation Dues in Cuba, Puerto Rico, and the Philippine Islands, equality shall exist between Spanish Vessels and the Ships of all those Nations which may, in their respective Territories and Colonies, make the like concession to Spanish Vessels proceeding from the Ports of the abovementioned Islands and from the Ports of the Peninsula and adjacent Islands.

Art. 2. Reciprocity in the payment of the said Dues shall come into operation in the Colonies with regard to the Vessels of each Nation on the day of publication in the Gazette of the Order by which the said reciprocity may be determined.

Given at the Palace on 4th of June, 1868.

Signed by the Royal Hand.

The Minister of the Colonies,
CARLOS MARFORI.

Mr. Hammond to the Under Secretary of State, Colonial Office.

Foreign Office, September 1, 1868.

The Under Secretary of State,
Colonial Office.

SIR,—With reference to the letter from this Office of the 11th of June last, enclosing a Spanish Decree extending to Vessels of Foreign Nations the privileges [illegible] Navigation Dues enjoyed by Mr. Crawford to Lord Stanley.

Havana, August 5, 1868.

The Lord STANLEY, M.P., &c., &c., &c.

MY LORD,—I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. Murray's Dispatch, No. 5, of the 16th of June, enclosing a copy of a Dispatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, with a copy of a Royal Decree, issued by the Spanish Government, by which the Differential Port and Navigation Dues upon Foreign Ships in the Colonies of Cuba, Porto Rico, and the Philippine Islands are equalized with those enacted upon Spanish Vessels, provided that such Foreign Vessels belong to nations in whose Colonies a similar equality of those Dues is granted to Spanish Shipping.

I have the honour of transmitting herewith to your Lordship a copy of a letter which I addressed to the Intendente on the 13th ultimo, claiming this equality for British Vessels in the trade with this Island, as in the publication of the Royal Decree in the Havana "Gazette" there is added, that "in order to enjoy this equality, it is indispensably necessary that the Representatives of the respective Powers who may ask for reciprocity must at the same time show that it has been also adopted in the countries which they represent."

Not receiving any answer, I had an interview with Mr. Lara, the Intendente, on the 3rd instant, and he stated that as the Ministers of France and of the North Germanic Confederation were the only Foreign Representatives at Madrid who had asked for the reciprocity mentioned, no orders had been received from the Spanish Government to grant it to the Vessels of other Nations, and that it would be necessary for the British Minister to do the same in order to put British Shipping on a par with the others; but His Excellency added that as the formality would be doubtless complied with in due course of time, he would see whether he could not put the matter on a proper footing at once.

Knowing, however, how dilatory the Spanish Treasury Officials are in all such matters, and the question being of very great importance to British trade here, I have, at the request of several of the Merchants telegraphed to your Lordship on the subject, so as to prevent claims later: for money once paid into the Treasury here, is with very great difficulty to be recovered.

I have &c.

JOHN. V. CRAWFORD.

Mr. Crawford to the Intendente General.

Havana, July 13, 1868.

MOST EXCELLENT SIR,—Having received from my Government a copy of the Royal Order of the 4th June, which has been recently published here in the Gazette, by which the Spanish Government orders that the Differential Port and Navigation Dues exacted upon Foreign Shipping in the Colonies of Cuba, Porto Rico, and the Philippine Islands, shall be equalized with those exacted from Spanish Vessels, provided that such Foreign Vessels belong to Nations in whose Colonies and Territories a similar equality of those Dues is granted to Spanish Vessels. I have the honour of claiming this privilege for all British Vessels, as it is a well-known and incontrovertible fact that since the adoption of the great principles of free trade in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, years ago, the Vessels of Spain, in common with those of all other nations, are admitted to all British Ports in every part of the world, on the same terms and with the same privileges as British Vessels.

Not only is this the case as regards Port and Navigation Dues, but I may also add that there are no Differential Dues of any kind upon cargoes imported into Great Britain and any of her Colonies by Spanish or other Foreign Vessels.

By the second Article of the Royal Order referred to, I beg to claim this equality of Port and Navigation Dues for all British Ships which have been received at any Port in Cuba on and since the publication of it in the Gazette.

I have, &c.,
JOHN V. CRAWFORD.

ZIJNE Excellentie de Gouverneur heeft gelast de volgende correspondentie met den President van den Oranje Vrijstaat tot algemeen narigt bekend te maken.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Gouverneur,
R. SOUTHEY,
Koloniale Secretaris.

Bloemfontein, 4 December, 1868.

Aan Zijne Excellentie den Gouverneur van de Kaap de Goede Hoop.

MIJNHEER,—Met leedwezen uit Uwer Excellenties brief van den 15den ultimo bespeurende, dat het mij niet gelukt is het oogmerk kenbaar te maken van mijne brieven, waarin geklaagd wordt over de diefstallen en geweldadigheden, bedreven door de Basutos sedert de Proklamatie, bij welke zij werden aangenomen als Britsche onderdanen, zal ik trachten hetzelve duidelijker te omschrijven.

Onze Regering beoordeelde, dat de Proklamatie aangaande de Basutos, op den tijd na de wijze harer uitvoering berekend was en gebleken is te zijn schadelijk en nadeelig voor de belangen van den Oranje Vrijstaat, en dat terwijl aan onze regering en ons volk nog steeds bepaaldelijk vergunningen worden geweigerd voor het koopen van wapenen en ammunitie, in strijd met de bepalingen der Conventie, de Basutos in de gelegenheid worden gesteld, ruime toevoeren te bekomen van wapenen en ammunitie, waarmede zij de lijn, vastgesteld bij het Traktaat van Thaba Bosigo, overschrijden, ten einde wandaden en misdrijven uit te voeren op het vervolgde en aangerechte grondgebied, zoowel als in den ouden Vrijstaat. Wij houden verder staande, dat voor de diefstallen en geweldadigheden, door de Basutos bedreven, omdat zij tot Britsche onderdanen waren geproklameerd, onze Regering regt heeft vergoeding te vorderen van Harer Majesteits Gouvernement, tot schadeloosstelling onzer Burgers, die die verliezen geleden hebben, en met dat oogmerk en in de hoop, dat Uwe Excellentie maatregelen zou nemen om een einde te maken aan die wandaden en misdrijven, vermits wij door de Proklamatie verhinderd worden, de dieven te vervolgen en te straffen over de lijn, vastgesteld bij het Traktaat van Thaba Bosigo, heb ik in mijne vorige brieven Uwe Excellentie eene lijst doen toekomen van de verschillende diefstallen en daden van geweld, door de Basutos gepleegd sedert de Proklamatie van 13 Maart ll. Ten behoorlijken tijd zal ik eene verdere lijst indienen om onzen eisch te schragen.

In mijn schrijven van 3 Junij ll., heb ik getracht uiteen te zetten, en onze correspondentie toont aan, dat ons protest tegen de aanneming der Basutos als Britsche onderdanen, en de laatgezing om den toevoer onzer ammunitie te staken, onze Regering niet verhinderde te onderhandelen over eene provisioneele grenslijn onder den waarborg daarin gemeld. Daar wij het van 't grootste belang beschouwden, een duidelijk begrip te hebben van gevoelens van Harer Majesteits Regering aangaande den zin en de uitwerking der Conventie, zond onze Regering gedeputeerden af om onze klagten tegen het verbreken der Conventie aan Harer Majesteits Regering voor te leggen; maar wij stemmen ten volle toe met de onderhandelingen zeer geschikt ter plaatse zelve konnen geschieden.

Het verheugt mij te vernemen, dat Uwe Excellentie aan den Heer Bowker heeft geseineven aangaande het detachement Gewapend Rijdende Grenspolitie, gestationeerd op de plaats van den Heer du Toit, in het verontrede en aangeduide grondgebied, als gemeld in mijn brief gedateerd Rouxville, den 25sten October.

Ik heb, enz.,
J. H. BRAND.

Gouvernementshuis, Kaapstad, 16 Dec., 1868.

Aan ZHEd. den President van den Oranje Vrijstaat.

Hoog-Edele Heer,—Ik bedien mij van deze gelegenheid om u mede te deelen, dat ik dezer dagen niet alleen uwen brief van 4 dezer heb ontvangen, maar ook eene depêche van den Hertog van Buckingham, inhoudende de hoofdpunten der discussie tusschen hemzelven en de Afgevaardigden van uwe Regering; en ofschoon niet twijfelende, dat die Heeren u hebben bekend gemaakt met wat er besproken is, geloof ik wel te doen, met u in te zenden omtrent de gevoelens van Zijne Genade, als door hem uitgedrukt, en waarvan het natuurlijk gepast [illegible]

Zijne Genade informeerde hen, dat de aanneming der Basutos als Britsche onderdanen beschouwd moest worden als eene afgedane zaak, en dat wat de handel in ammunitie betreft, Harer Majesteits Regering niet begreep en dus ook niet erkennen kon, verpligt te zijn den toevoer van ammunitie van de Vrije Staten te veroorloven onder omstandigheden van vijandelijkheid, ofschoon zij niet omkende, dat de bepalingen der conventien met die Staten haar beletten eenigerlei toevoer aan de inlanders toe te staan.

Hij gaf hun te kennen, dat er van de zijde der Britsche Regering geene begeerte bestond en nooit bestaan had, om op onvriendelijke wijze jegens den Vrijstaat te handelen; dat het niet betwijfeld kon worden, of zij moesten gebaat worden door elken maatregel waardoor de vrede in het land verzekerd wordt; en dat alleen was om een einde te maken aan den chronischen staat van oorlogvoeren, die er bestaan had tot groot nadeel van de Britsche Kolonien en voor den vrede en de veiligheid van de Europesche Kolonisten in Zuid Afrika, en om een duurzamen vrede te vestigen, dat Harer Majesteits Gouvernement besloten had, niet door een daad van geweld, maar in overeenkomst met den herhaalden wensch der Basutos, hen als Britsche onderdanen te erkennen.

De Hertog van Buckingham verzekerde insgelijks aan de afgevaardigden, dat mij gelast was, als een voornaam deel van dien maatregel, mij met uwe Regering te verstaan, ten einde eene wederzijdsche overeenkomst daar te stellen voor het vestigen van eene behoudelijke grenslijn tusschen den Vrijstaat en Basutoland; dat ik, naar het hem voorkwam, gepaste stappen had gedaan om aan die laatgeving te voldoen, en dat Harer Majesteits Regering daarom geen plan had, om der onderhandelingen mij uit de handen te nemen, maar het volle gezag dat zij wist mij alreede gegeven te zijn om die te regelen, mij zou blijven toevertrouwd.

In antwoord op het argument van de afgevaardigden, dat bij een onlangs met de Basutos gesloten traktaat eene nieuwe grenslijn was bepaald, en dat geene verdere onderhandelingen of overeenkomst omtrent de zaak noodig was, merkte zijne Genade aan, dat, welke ook de omstandigheden mogen zijn geweest, waaronder zoodanig traktaat gesloten was, of bewaard werd gesloten te zijn, het opgeheven was door den toestand van oorlog die er op volgde en er inderdaad uit ontstaan was, en dat de kwestie omtrent de grenslijn nog geheel open was.

De Hertog van Buckingham gaf verder aan de afgevaardigden te verstaan, dat sommige mijne brief van 27 Maart, waartegen zij zoo groot bezwaar maakten, tot geen gelukkige uitkomst had geleid, zelfs niet eens tot onderhandeling, hij, gene reden zag, waarom die niet zou worden aangemaakt als ingetrokken, zoo dat de onderhandeling kon voortgaan als voortgevloeid uit mijne eerste schrijven aan u,—waardoor zich misschien nieuwe maatregelen zouden voordoen, die meer aannemelijk zijn voor uwe Regering dan het voorstel, waartegen zij zoo ernstig objecteeren. Zijne Genade voegde er bij, dat naar hem toescheen er slechts één gevoelen tusschen de beide Regeringen kon bestaan omtrent het gewigt van de daarstelling eener grenslijn, die niet slechts eene oplossing zou zijn van eene tijdelijke moeijelijkheid, maar die door eene oordeelkundige en billijke keuze de elementen van duurzaamheid in zich draagt.

Ik vertrouw niet te lang te zullen worden in de verwachting, gegrond op uwen jongsten brief zoo wel als op de dépêche van den Secretaris van Staat, dat het nu uitvoerbaar zal worden bevonden, om tot eene oplossing te geraken van de moeijelijkheden, waartegen wij zoo lang te worstelen hadden, en om den strijd ten einde te brengen die zoo veel onheil veroorzaakt heeft en nog veroorzaakt. Ik aarzel niet om mijn brief uit Colesberg terug te trekken, en aldus allen grond van ontevredenheid dien deze mogt hebben veroorzaakt uit den weg te ruimen, terwijl gij aan den anderen kant uwe volle instemming hebt betuigd, dat er ter plaatse zelve zeer goede onderhandelingen kunnen worden aangeknoopt.

't Is u bekend, dat mijne bewegingen grootelijks afhangen moesten van de zitting des Parlements, en dat ik mij slechts gedurende dezelfde maanden van het aanstaande jaar goedschiks uit de Kaapstad verwijderen kan. Ik zal derhalve schikkingen maken om te Aliwal aan te komen niet later dan 1 Februarij aanstande, bereid om naar zoodanige plaats benoorden de Oranjerivier te gaan, als welke dan als het meest gerieflijk voor alle partijen zal beschouwd worden; en ik vertrouw eene betuiging van bereidwilligheid van uwe Regering te ontvangen, om alsdan onderhandelingen aan te knoopen.

Ik onthoud mij van te treden in grieven en schade aan elkander door beide partijen berokkend en waarop gij verder in uwen brief van den 4den hett gezinspeeld, daar ik overtuigd ben dat alle kwesties van dien aard het best kunnen afgemaakt worden door vriendschappelijke persoonlijke bespreking.

Ik ben, enz.,
P. E. WODEHOUSE.

In the Court of the Eastern Districts
of the Cape of Good Hope.

The Honourable JAMES COLEMAN FITZPATRICK, Esq., Senior Judge, and the Honourable ALFRED WHALEY COLE, Esq., the Judges of the Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope, and Judges of our Supreme Court of our said Colony, do hereby make known:

THAT whereas HONORIE LEAR, of Alice, in the Division of Victoria East, made an application to the Honourable the Court of the Eastern Districts on the 29th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, for leave to Summon CHARLES LEAR, her Husband, now or lately a Private Soldier in Her Majesty's Regiment called the "2nd Queen's," but now supposed to be in the territory of the Orange Free State, or elsewhere beyond the jurisdiction of the Courts of our said Colony, by process of Edictal Citation, to appear, either in person or by proxy, to show cause why an order or decree of this Honourable Court shall not be granted for the restitution of the conjugal rights of the said HONORIE LEAR, by reason of the said CHARLES LEAR having, in or about the month of March, 1860, maliciously deserted her, the said HONORIE LEAR; all which the said Court having taken into consideration granted accordingly:

And whereas, on the 6th day of October last past, the said Court did, by Edictal Citation duly published, summon the said CHARLES LEAR to appear, either in person or by proxy, before this Honourable Court on the 16th day of November last past, to show wherefore he should not be ordered and decreed to return to the said HONORIE LEAR, with her to live and cohabit as man and wife, or otherwise wherefore the said Court should not grant such further or other relief in the premises as might seem expedient:

And whereas, on the said 16th day of November last past, the said HONORIE LEAR came by her Counsel and Attorney, and the said CHARLES LEAR did not appear, but made default; and thereupon, and upon hearing Mr. SOLICITOR-GENERAL, of Counsel for the said HONORIE LEAR, the said Court granted to the said HONORIE LEAR the benefit of the first default, and gave leave to issue a second Edictal Citation in the premises:

And whereas, on the said 16th day of November last past, the said Court did, by Edictal Citation duly published, summon the said CHARLES LEAR to appear, either in person or by proxy, before this Honourable Court on the 14th day of December, 1868, for the purpose aforesaid:

And whereas, on the 14th day of December, 1868, the said HONORIE LEAR came by her Counsel and Attorney, and the said CHARLES LEAR did not appear, but made default; and thereupon, and upon hearing Mr. SOLICITOR-GENERAL for the said HONORIE LEAR, the said Court grants to the said HONORIE LEAR the benefit of the second default of the said CHARLES LEAR, and gives leave to issue a third Edictal Citation in the premises:

Now, therefore, the said Court do by these presents again summon the said CHARLES LEAR to appear, either in person or by proxy, before this Honourable Court on the 12th day of January, now next ensuing, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to show wherefore he shall not be ordered and decreed to return to the said HONORIE LEAR, with her to live and cohabit as man and wife, or otherwise wherefore the said Court shall not grant such further or other relief in the premises as may seem expedient, with costs, and further to proceed according to law.

Thus done and granted in the Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope, at Graham's Town, this 21st day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

JOHN J. GRAHAM,
Acting Registrar of the Court of the Eastern Districts.

J. AYLIFF, Plaintiff's Attorney,
No. 14, High-street, Graham's Town.

In the Court of the Eastern Districts
of the Cape of Good Hope.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith.

To the Sheriff of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, or his lawful Deputy, Greeting.

WHEREAS upon the petition to the Honourable Mr. Justice FITZPATRICK, Senior Judge, and to the Honourable Mr. Justice COLE, the Judges of the Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope, and Judges of our Supreme Court of this said Colony, of GEORGE SCOTT and LAWRENCE SCOTT, trading and carrying on Business at Queen's Town as Wagonmakers and Coachbuilders, under the Style or Firm of SCOTT BROTHERS, against ALFRED NEWMAN, formerly of Queen's Town,—it appears to us that the said ALFRED NEWMAN is justly and truly indebted to the said firm of SCOTT BROTHERS in the sum of one hundred pounds, together with the Interest due thereon, by virtue and in terms of a certain Mortgage Bond, dated the 17th day of October, 1866, passed and executed by HENRY MATHEW ARDERNE, as the duly authorized agent of the said ALFRED NEWMAN, to and in favour of PETRONELLA ROSINA SMITH, or her Assigns, and by her ceded to ROBERT HENRY SOUTHEY, and by CHARLES ALEXANDER NESBITT, as the duly authorized Attorney of the said ROBERT HENRY SOUTHEY, under a Power of Attorney executed before the Notary, SELBY CORYNDON, and witnesses, on the 4th day of February last, duly ceded to the said SCOTT BROTHERS on the 7th day of September, now last, who are now the legal holders of the said Bond, and who value their security on the property specially hypothecated by the said Bond at the sum of seventy pounds sterling:

And whereas the said ALFRED NEWMAN did abscond from Queen's Town on or about the 20th day of May, now last past, and is now supposed to be in England, having been last heard of at Port Elizabeth, and has departed from his late residence and domicile at Queen's Town, or otherwise is absenting himself therefrom, or from this Colony, with intent to defeat or delay his Creditors in obtaining payment of their debts, and has thereby committed an act of insolvency:

And whereas it further appears to us of record that, by order of our said Court of the Eastern Districts, bearing date the 10th day of December, instant, it is ordered that the Estate of the said ALFRED NEWMAN be placed under sequestration, unless cause be shown to the contrary thereof, on the 12th day of January, 1869:

Now, therefore, we command you that you summon the said ALFRED NEWMAN that he be and appear before our Justices of our said Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope, at Graham's Town, on the 12th day of January, 1869, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if he have any, why his Estate should not by sentence of this Court be adjudged to be sequestrated as insolvent, for the benefit of his Creditors; and return you then there this Summons with whatever you have done thereupon.

Witness: The Honourable JAMES COLEMAN FITZPATRICK, Esq., Senior Judge of our said Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope, at Graham's Town, the 22nd day of December, 1868.

JOHN J. GRAHAM,
Acting Registrar of the Court of the Eastern Districts.

GEO. GR. WRIGHT, High-street, Graham's Town, Attorney for the Petitioning Creditors, SCOTT BROTHERS

DAT aangezien door HONORIE LEAR, wonende te Alice, in de Afdeeling Victoria Oost, op den Negen-en-twintigsten September in het jaar onzes Heeren Een Duisend Acht Honderd Acht-en-zestig, bij het Hof der Oostelijke Distrikten is aanzoek gedaan om vergunning tot het indagen van CHARLES LEAR, haren echtgenoot, thans of onlangs gemeen soldaat bij Harer Majesteits Regement, genaamd het "2nd Queen's" maar thans vermoedelijk zich bevindende op het Grondgebied van den Oranje Vrijstaat, buiten de jurisdictie van dit Hof, en van de Hoven der gezegde Kolonie, bij Edictale Citatie, om in persoon of bij gevolmagtigde te verschijnen, en redenen op te geven waarom door dit Hof geene order of geen dekreet behoort te worden gegeven voor de herstelling der huwelijksregten van de gezegde HONORIE LEAR, hebbende de gezegde CHARLES LEAR in of omtrent de maand Maart, 1860, haar, de gezegde HONORIE LEAR, met boos opzet verlaten. Al hetwelk het gezegde Hof in overweging genomen hebbende heeft toegestaan.

En aangezien het gezegde Hof op den Zesden dag van October ll. bij Edictale Citatie, behoorlijk gepubliceerd, den gezegden CHARLES LEAR heeft ingedaagd, om hetzij in persoon of bij gevolmagtigde, voor dit Hof te verschijnen op den Zestienden dag van November ll., om redenen op te geven waarom hem niet behoort te worden gelast en bevolen terug te keeren tot de gezegde HONORIE LEAR en met haar te leven en zamen te wonen als man en vrouw; of anders, waarom het gezegde Hof niet zoodanig ander en verder verhaal in het boven omschrevene behoort te geven, als het raadzaam zal voordeelen.

En aangezien op den Zestienden dag van November ll. de gemelde HONORIE LEAR, in den persoon van haren Advokaat en van haren Prokureur heeft gecompareerd, en de gezegde CHARLES LEAR niet is verschenen maar in gebreke is gebleven, waarop het Hof, den Soliciteur-Generaal als Advokaat voor de gezegde HONORIE LEAR gehoord hebbende, aan de gezegde HONORIE LEAR het voordeel van de eerste niet-verschijning heeft toegestaan en verlof heeft gegeven voor het uitvaardigen van eene nieuwe Edictale Citatie in deze;

En aangezien op den gezegden zestienden dag van November laatstleden, het gezegde Hof bij behoorlijk gepubliceerde Edictale Citatie den gezegden CHARLES LEAR heeft ingedaagd om in persoon of bij gemagtigde voor dit Hof te verschijnen op den 14den dag van December, Een Duisend Acht Honderd Acht-en-Zestig, voor het doel bovengenoemd;

En aangezien op den veertienden dag van December, Een Duisend Acht Honderd Acht en-Zestig, de gezegde HONORIE LEAR, in den persoon van haren Advokaat en van haren Prokureur heeft gecompareerd en de gezegde CHARLES LEAR niet is verschenen maar afwezig is gebleven, waarop het Hof, den Soliciteur Generaal voor de gezegde HONORIE LEAR gehoord hebbende, haar het voordeel van de tweede niet-verschijning heeft toegestaan, en verlof gegeven voor de uitvaardiging van eene derde Edictale Citatie in zake bovengenoemd;

Zoo is het dat het gezegde Hof bij dezen den gezegden CHARLES LEAR andermaal indaagt, om, hetzij in persoon of bij gevolmagtigde, op den 12den dag van Januarij, nu aanstaande, 's voormiddags ten 10 ure, voor dit Hof te verschijnen, om redenen op te geven, waarom hem niet behoort te worden gelast en bevolen, terug te keeren tot de gezegde HONORIE LEAR, om met haar te leven en zamen te wonen als man en vrouw;—of anders, waarom het gezegde Hof geen zoodanig ander verhaal behoort te geven, als hetzelve moge dienstig schijnen, met de kosten, en om verder te procederen volgens de Wet.

Aldus gedaan en verleend in het Hof van de Oostelijke Distrikten van de Kaap de Goede Hoop, te Grahamstad, heden den 21sten dag van December, in het jaar onzes Heeren Een Duizend Acht Honderd Acht-en-zestig.
